A Curious Sight.

In Japan the traveler sees many curious sights. One of the strangest of which is the population washing itself at the corners of streets toward evening. In Yeddo the citizens frequent large bathing establishments. The street doors of such resorts stand open, and a striking spectacle, to say the least, is presented by the inmates sitting washing themselves with the utmost unconcern. This is a general custom, and nothing whatever is thought of it. Such an apparent want of modesty is difficult to comprehend and is not reconcilable with the advanced state of civilization of the Japanese. In many other of the manners and customs do the Japs offer a striking antagonism to those accepted by us.

Cheap Injury.

Casey—Shure, an it's th' unlucky mon Oi am!

Clancy—Unlucky be dom'd! Hov'n't yez him out av th' wreck wid only a broken arm?

Casey (sarcastically)—An for which Oi only git foive hundred dollars! Thim fellies thot wor kilt git foive thousand.

Mowder was unable to be in court Monday, but his father was there and said that his son had been badly cut. Burkholder pleaded guilty to the charge of assault and battery, but sentence was reserved until Tuesday. In the meantime the case will be further inquired into.

ARTHUR ILER.

An Aged Man Died of Cancer Sunday.

NO#2

Arthur Iler, aged 67 years, 5 months and 8 days died Sunday at 1100 South Mains street from the effects of a cancer in his stomach.

He had lived in Akron four months. A wife, two sons and two daughters survive him. The sons are P. P. Iler, of this city and W. H. Iler, of Garrett city, Ind. The daughters are, Mrs Clara Sinder and Mrs. E. A. Sperry, of South Main street.

Services will be held at the residence Monday evening at 7 o'clock. Burial at Massillon Tuesday forenoon.

Burial at Hudson.

The funeral of Thomas Petley, who died at his home, 111 Vine street, Saturday morning from a complication of diseases, was held Monday morning at 9 o'clock from the residence. Burial in Hudson.

"Schenck's Theory, or the Predetermination of Sex," published by the Werner Co.; a scientific work that has astonished the world. For sale at Beacon Journal counting room at a special price to our subscribers.

er and composer. Up to the present his literary abilities have been known only to a limited circle of his friends and they are confident that "The Bride Elect" will prove to be a clever story, cleverly told. Certainly from all reports Messrs. Klaw and Erlinger and B. D. Stevens have left nothing undone to ensure the success of the opera. They have provided a cast consisting of Albert Hart, Hilda Clark, Christie MacDonald, Mabella Baker, George Lyding, Melville Stewart and Harry Luckstone, a chorus of 50, a ballet under Carl Marwig, new and magnificent scenery by Ernest Gros, beautiful costumes by F. Richard Anderson, a military band and an enlarged orchestra. The opera house has been specially selected for this production both on account of its great stage as well as its superb acoustic properties. The unusual spectacle of a large number of orders for seats mailed before the opening of the advance sale, is particularly pleasing to the management. These will be filled in the order of the date of application.

At the Assembly Theater.

The following artists will be seen at the Assembly theater for this week: Waldo and Elliott, aerial artists; Burt Parker, character songs; Merrill and Earle, illustrated songs. Marion and Pearl have been retained to present an entirely new specialty and Dewitt, LaDurr and Dewalt, the famous comedy trio. On Tuesday evening election returns will be read from the stage as fast as they are received. There will be two performances on Tuesday evening. The first at 8:15. The second commences at 11 p. m., thus giving time to hear from outside precincts.

The Valentine Company.

Miss Kate Blancke, one of the leading ladies of the Valentine Stock company, and who will be seen here in the presentation of "The Butterflies" and "Esmeralda" at the Grand opera house tonight and Tuesday evening, is not only a beautiful woman, but combines with comeliness and undefined grace that which stamps her at once a lady of refinement and culture. She is also possessed of that rare discrimination that is an absolute necessity among the peculiar qualifications of an intelligent and successful stock actress. That Miss Blancke is an artiste is evident in the fact that previous to her entree as a stock actress her professional career was spent in the support of such notable stars as William H. Crane, Sol Smith Russell, Nat C. Goodwin, Marie Wainwright, and the lamented comedi

"MY GREAT DESIRE."

In my great desire for the success of this measure, I cannot restrain the suggestion that its success can only be obtained by means of unselfish counsel on the part of the friends of tariff reform and as a result of their willingness to subordinate personal desires and ambitions to the general good. The local interests affected by the proposed reform are so numerous and so varied that if all are insisted upon the legislation embodying the reform must absolutely fail.

In conclusion, my intense feeling of responsibility impels me to invoke for the manifold interests of a generous and confiding people the most scrupulous care, and to pledge my willing support to every legislative effort for the advancement of the greatness and prosperity of our beloved country.

Samuel J. Iler died at Muncie, Ind., April 20th, of lung fever, at the age of 35. The body was brought home today. The funeral will take place from the residence of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Iler, North Mill street, Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Friends of the family are invited.

William Borden, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Borden, for two years assistant yardmaster for the Nickel Plate road, at Cleveland, was promoted on Thursday to chief yardmaster, at a salary of $1,800 per year. The position is one of great responsibility, involving the handling of several hundred men and a large office staff. Mr. Borden's Massillon friends will offer congratulations upon his deserved good fortune.

Several young hoodlums made their presence unpleasantly manifest from doing the gallery at Bucher's last night, their best or worst to ruin the effect of one of the best climaxes in the cantata "Jephthah." Unfortunately no one in authority was present to stop the disturbance. This sort of thing is of entirely too frequent occurrence, and if the presence of a policeman in the gallery cannot be secured, a good-sized club in the hands of a big man might be effective.

Straight Downward Ninety-five Feet into a Shallow Water Tank.

Thomas Burns wears garments consisting principally of medals of silver and gold he has won in swimming and diving contests. He has saved 32 lives during his short career, for he is now but 20 years of age. He has frequently dived from bridges over 100 feet high into rivers, but his dive at the famous aquarium in London is a very different affair. He stands on a tiny platform suspended among the iron girders of the roof, 95 feet above the floor, and sees below him, instead of a broad, deep river, a mass of flaring, bewildering lights, a sea of upturned faces, and in the wooden floor of the stage what seems from that height to be a mere slot, the tank which he must surely land in. The tank is 18 feet long, 8 feet wide and 7 feet deep. The diver actually dives, takes a header, and does not drop feet foremost, after the manner of the bridge jumpers. The marvelous precision required to land in the tank is easily appreciable, as is also the fate that would befall him should he miss his mark.

Burns is hoisted up to his aerial perch by means of a rope and pulley. Then he simply topples off the platform, and those who have strong nerves see his body descend through space like a shot. He seems at first as though he were going to strike the water dead straight. But this is precisely what he does not do. For when he strikes the water it is with his shoulders, exactly as the diving acrobat strikes the net. The effect is almost as though he had fallen flat on his back, for the rest of his body comes smack down on the water as soon as his shoulders meet the resistance of the surface. In an instant he is on the surface again puffing and blowing and looking as though the fall and the smash into the water had knocked all the wind out of him. "It is not a dive at all," the spectators complain—"he falls on his back." There is a popular feeling that in selecting any other way to fall but the way in which he would inevitably kill himself Mr. Burns takes quite a mean advantage of the gathering.

Chess Expert Walbrodt.

Carl August Walbrodt, the young German chess expert who is now attracting about as much attention in this country as his more famous rival, Emanuel Lasker, is only 21 years of age, but there are few men in the world who can worst him at the intricate game of chess. Walbrodt is a native of Amsterdam, and as chess players, like poets, are born and not made, the young Hollander began to display his natural talent for chess at a very tender age. When only 10 years old, Walbrodt could play a very creditable game, and a year or two later he was looked upon as a candidate for future glory among the masters of the game. In 1890 he made his debut as a public player of note in Berlin and won first prize in the Berlin tournament of that year. In 1891 he defeated Schallop, and other players of note have since succumbed to his prowess.—In appearance Walbrodt is small, pale and

PROTECT THE COAT COLLAR.

By way of a collar protector, there is a soft fold of silk worn within the neck of the coat and never were they more necessary than today. The cloth coat cannot be allowed to rub against the delicate lace and net of the modern yoke; nor more is it advisable to allow the harsh gilt threads of the metallic laces to wear away the broadcloth of the coat collar.

A bias of silk is folded together and slipstitched. Its ends are drawn to a point and finished with ball or tassel. This is basted along the inside of the coat collar as far as the shoulder seam, so that it may be always in place at the back, and may be crossed in front at the discretion of the wearer.

Its ends hang to the waist line, and when the coat is opened fall gracefully, contributing to a decorative scheme if the color be chosen with the costume in view. Some of the French brocades may be thus utilized.

Huntington Republicans at Rochester.

The Republicans of Huntington went over to Rochester last Saturday evening to participate in a big rally and parade. Speaking of the turnout, the Herald says there were 1,784 people on board the special train, and the citizens of Rochester were "surprised, overwhelmed and delighted at the turnout." Chairman Beck had engaged the Van Buren band to accompany the excursion, and the Herald says: "The Van Buren band, which accompanied the excursion, played grandly, was nicely uniformed and every member behaved like a gentleman. The band was a credit to the crowd. The members had a tiresome task before them in the drive to Van Buren after returning to this city."

The Oil Belt Electric Railway.

From exchanges it is learned that the Oil Belt Traction company is at work on the line from Huntington to Portland, by way of Warren and Montpelier, and that prospects are favorable. It is also said that the line may be extended to Fort Wayne, and that a branch will run from Montpelier to Marion. From present indications work will be commenced early next spring and the road completed by next fall.

Schools Will Open Monday.

The public schools of Warren will open again next Monday morning. All the cases of diphtheria having been cured and the danger of infection having passed, the quarantine will be raised next Monday. This notice is given by authority of the school trustees and secretary of the board of health.

volume. She is a lady of education and refinement, and numbers among her friends the best people in the county.

Mr. Beichly was a devoted member of the Lutheran Church, to the support of which he had been a liberal contributor for many years. He was a supporter of the Democratic party, whose cause he did all in his power to forward. He was well known throughout this county, where he had lived for so many years, and may well be accounted one of the earlist settlers and pioneers. He witnessed much of the phenomenal growth of the state and county, in whose development he very materially assisted.

JOSHUA P. GRIMM, proprietor of one of the leading livery stables in New Philadelphia, is one of the prosperous business men of the city and prominent in its public life. He was born here, April 22, 1839, to Solomon and Mary (Iler) Grimm. The former was a native of York County, Pa., having been born there January 11, 1809. He was about three years of age when he was brought by his father and mother to this state, the journey being made in what was then called a "prairie schooner."

John Grimm, the paternal grandfather of our subject, was the son of Swiss parents, and when ready to embark in life for himself, located on a large tract of land on Old Town Creek, which he developed into one of the best farms in the vicinity, living there until his decease. There his son Solomon was reared to man's estate, and trained to a thorough knowledge of farm pursuits. When a young man of twenty-two years the latter came to New Philadelphia and appenticed himself to learn the trade of a blacksmith. After following this business for a time, he abandoned it to engage with the Ohio Stage Company as driver, continuing in their employ for several years. He afterward purchased a livery stable, and, owning his own horses and vehicles, ran stage coaches between New Philadelphia and Uhrichsville, also between Massillon and Millersburg. He worked these routes until the building of the railroads, when he was obliged to discontinue this slow method of travel. He still operated his livery, however, until 1888, when he retired from the active duties of life. He is now living in this city, where he is well known and highly esteemed.

The mother of our subject was born of Irish parents. She was a most estimable and worthy lady, and departed this life about fifteen years ago. She became the mother of eleven children, six of whom grew to mature years. Hannah died at four years of age; our subject was next in order of birth; then followed Rebecca, Lee H., Elmer B., Frank R. and John A. All are now deceased with the exception of our subject.

Joshua Grimm was educated in this city, first attending the public schools, and afterward studying under the tutelage of Professor Welty. He began the battle of life on his own account by working at the printer's trade. This he followed off and on for about four years, but was finally obliged to abandon that branch of work on account of being troubled with asthma. After this he was variously occupied until he enlisted in the Union army, which he did August 19, 1862, at Steubenville, becoming a member of Company K, Ninety-eighth Ohio Infantry, Colonel Webster commanding. The same day he was mustered into service at Camp Mingo, and left with his regiment on the 20th for the field of battle.

First going to Lexington, Ky., Mr. Grimm was assigned to the Tenth Brigade, Fourth Division, Fourteenth Army Corps, under General Thomas, and the first engagement in which he participated was at Perryville, Ky. After that conflict the forces moved on to Crab Orchard, and later to Lebanon, where occurred many skirmishes. In one of these encounters our subject was wounded in the hand by a musket ball, on account of which he was given a furlough and returned home, and was later honorably discharged, March 13, 1863, on account of disability.

When fully recuperated, Mr. Grimm again offered his services in defense of his country's Flag, and was mustered in May 2, 1864, in Company E, One Hundred and Sixty-first Ohio Infantry, under Col.

O. P. Taylor. The regiment was then ordered into Maryland, and after remaining for a time at Cumberland went into West Virginia, where the forces were divided, a portion going up the Shenandoah after Hunter, and the remainder, including the company of our subject, remaining on provost duty at Martinsburg. They were drawn up for battle at that place, but being at a great disadvantage retreated to Maryland Heights, where they skirmished with the enemy from time to time. The regiment remained in that section until they were ordered to Columbus, this state, and were there mustered out, September 2, 1864.

After an army experience of over two years Mr. Grimm returned home and engaged in the livery business in Uhrichsville, remaining in that city until 1870, when he disposed of his interests there and removed to New Philadelphia. In 1879 he opened up a fine stable here, carrying on a successful business for four years, when he again sold out, this time returning to his former place of residence, engaging in the same enterprise there. Having a good offer made him at the end of seven weeks, he accepted it, and we again find him located in this city, and the proprietor of an entirely new livery outfit.

In March, 1884, Mr. Grimm disposed of his stables, and two months thereafter established a grocery and meat-market, also opened up a livery in another location. In 1885 he sold out all his interests in these various lines, and in the spring of the following year became "mine host" of the Banner House. He was very successful in this enterprise and continued thus to operate for two years. In connection with his hotel he also ran a livery, and at the expiration of the time above mentioned exchanged the former concern for a farm in Rice County, Kan. He removed thither with his family, making his home for a time on his tract consisting of two hundred and sixty acres. This he now leases to good advantage. During this time Mr. Grimm still retained the livery, and on his return to New Philadelphia bought back the hotel property, which he rents.

November 8, 1870, our subject was united in marriage at Uhrichsville to Miss Martha E., daughter of George and Mary (Wilson) Goodwin, natives of this state. The father now makes his home in Canton, but the mother is deceased, passing away July 28, 1863. The Goodwin family included sixteen children, thirteen of whom grew to mature years and were married. They were named respectively: Rachel, Oliver, Albert, Elizabeth, Anderson, Caroline, Cassie, Ada, Alpha, Jennie, John, Pauline and Jetta. Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin were members in good standing of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

To our subject and his estimable wife there have been born two children, Frank, and an infant who died unnamed. The former was born November 23, 1871, and is now a well educated and enterprising young man. Mr. Grimm is a charter member of Andrew Crawford Post, G. A. R., in this city, and in politics, as might be expected, is a stanch Republican, and takes great interest in the success of his party. He is one of the old and successful business men of the city, and, if for no other reason, he deserves prominent mention in this volume for the services which he rendered his country during the late war.

ANDREW W. NICHOLSON. It is an undeniable truth that the life of any man is of great benefit to the community in which he resides when all his energies are directed toward advancing its interests, and when he lives according to the highest principles of what he conceives to be right. Mr. Nicholson is one of these men. He has been prominently identified with every enterprise of importance in the county, and no laudable movement is allowed to fail on account of support on his part. He is at present President of the Cambridge Roofing Company, which position he has held for the past seven years.

Mr. Nicholson was born in Guernsey County, December 21, 1833, and is the son of Robert and Agnes (Williams) Nicholson, natives of Fifeshire, Scotland. The father was a carpenter by trade, and emigrated to the United States with his fam-

Dear Will:

As per your letter of February 22nd .... I'm sorry it has taken me so long to get back to you. I had a little unexpected surgery and definitely got behind. Thanks for being so patient.

Now to our questions ---------NO0* you asked about the 1850 mortality schedule for Mary Iler. I did find a Mary Iler on it. They are not indnexed or in alphabetical order, just random. Have to go through them page by page. She was 61 years of age, married, born in PA, died in May of consumption, and was ill for 4 months. A copy is enclosed. b.1789

The newspapers do not go back into the 1850's. Start in the 1860's. Couldn't come up with an obit for this.

NO013

Also for Oliver Perry and Alvertus > no obits would exist for that time period.

I went to the recorders office to try land records for you. Those found were:

I did copy the one in Volume 23 on page 300. It is for William Iler and Exeutors. It does name son John W. Iler and William's wife as Elizebeth. A copy is enclosed.

Well, there are a lot of other court records to go through. The Common Pleas, the Supreme Court Journals, the Chancery Records, etc. What would like pursued? Let me know what you would like checked and I will be glad to dig for you.

By Friday of this week, I will be caught up with research. I am going to Philadelphia, the first of next month for a week for a client. I look forward to hearing from you. Let me know how I can help.

Sincerely,

for Allen County in 1912 to see if the name was there and had been missed by the person doing the index, but did not find him. I looked at the obituary indexes for each of the years of their deaths and found none of them. I do not know if I mentioned before that we live in Perry Township not too far from Huntertown. Perry is on the county line and just north of Huntertown is a place where Allen, Whitley, and Noble Counties all come together. I decided to check the death records for Noble and Whitley Counties. There was no book of death records for Noble County, but I did find one Iler in Whitley County - Joshua who died in 1901 at age 70 who was the son of John and Mariah Paulus Iler. I do not know who he is, but decided at this point to keep track of any Iler in the area.

I realized that I had never done the 1900 census and Oliver should be on that, so I read the Soundex for all the Iler names in Indiana who were born in Pennsylvania, Maryland, Ohio, or Indiana.

		Age	Born	Township	County
1870	Allen N.	30	IN	Swan	Noble	NO0131
1836	Ezra	64	OH	Anderson	Madison	VL03
1860	Ezrie	40	OH	Albion	Noble	XET
1875	George W.	25	IN	Keyser	DeKalb	NO136
1857	John S.	43	OH	Thorn Creek	Whitley	VL011
1832	Joshua	68	OH	Thorn Creek	Whitley	VL01
1860	Martha	40	OH	Wilmington	DeKalb	{xM05*
1844	Oliver P.	56	MD	Swan	Noble	NO013	- 17766
1842	Samuel	58	MD	Rock Creek	Huntington	NO12

I spent the rest of the time with the last two - both sons of John and Catharine.

Finding Oliver in Swan Township made all kinds of sense. Swan if the Township that borders Perry, so they were living just north of the county line and the closest cemetery just happened to be in the next county. On the census it said that they had been married 32 years and Mary had had five children all of whom were living. Knowing Otis from the cemetery record, we have two more with the daughters Jennie and Stella on the census. I was thinking that I had done the 1880 census, but cannot find that in my notes. I thought I would find the others on that.

There is no index for Indiana for the 1910 census, but I went through Swan Township and found them again. I will have to say the information that they gave as to Oliver's birthplace and those of his parents was certainly not consistent.

I found Samuel on the 1900 census also and again the problem is location of the county line. He is in the town of Markle which is right on the Huntington/Wells County line. He and Sarah had been married for 34 years and she had had three children with only one living in 1900. That was Elgie D. who had never married and was living with his parents. 00121

I did not take the time to go through all of the other Iler names that I found for the 1900 census this time. Let me know if you want me to check them. All of them are in this part of the state except for the

Dear William Peadon,

Your letter was forwarded to me by the Pioneer Historical Society. I am a local researcher and help answer the queries that arrive at the library.

Listed below are the references checked and any information that was found on your preliminary search.

1) Bedford Co PA Courthouse

a) Estate Papers: John - NONE
✓ Lawrence Oyler AKA. Bfd Twp 1841-0011 1841
Will Renunciation, Inv, Act.

b) Will: Lawrence Oiler c48 Bk 3 Pg 251 wife Mary Magdaline, daughters Mary, Catherine, Eve, Anna, Elizabeth, Barbara, and Susan.

c) Deeds: Grantee | Grantor
John Iler | Ohler | Oiler | Oyler = NONE.

C4

d) Orphan Court Records John - NONE

Oyler, Jacob 1797 Petition for Partion Docket 2 Pg 82.
sons, Frederick, Jacob, Felty, Conrad, Mary w/o Benj Waddle, Jonas, Peter, Lawrence, John, Catherine w/o John Links, Margaret w/o George Coffman, Barbara w/o George Harbaugh, Matelena w/o Gason Wolf.

Since none of the above were listed as minors I doubt if its your John, maybe a grandson. Most of these families if they were here in Bedford must have moved out because there arnt many records at the courthouse and Lawrence to have had only daughters.

2) Pioneer Library

b) File Draw = Welsh & Eyler Bible Record - nothing relates
c) Searches = Sheet enclosed with 3 people addresses seeking this name.

Mr. William Peadon

Ashtabula, OH 44004

Dear Mr. Peadon:

Tjis is in answer to your letter of 22 February, 1992, re the Eyler/Eiler/Oyler, etc. family, with your check, for which we thank you.

We have checked the church registers for Zion Lutheran and Reformed, Arendtsville; Benders Church; Lower Bermudian, churches in Frederick, Manchester, Middletown, Maryland, and St. Mary's Lutheran and Reformed, also in Marylandbut did not find either the marriage of John or the birth of John in 1812.

C511

In the tax record for Menallen township we find a Michael Oyler, in 1809, (not the first date) through 1825. He was taxed on 150 adres and 300 acres (these amounts varied) a saw mill and horses. There was also listed in 1823, Jacob, blacksmith; Widow, with 1 cow; and Valentine, horses and cows. Jacob, Widow and Valentine were listed through 1826. We did not pursue them further, In 1824 Michael sold a tract of 150 acres to a Valentine Fail, and in 1825 the rest of his land and the saw mill to Peter Comfort.

For the tax record for Liberty, see the attached sheet. Also, a list of poor children on a separate sheet.

We hope that the above gives you some information, and if there questions, please let us know.

Sincerely,

for THE ADAMS COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Dear Mr. Peadon:

Thank you for your letter dated August 27, 1991, which we received on September 5, 1991.

I have checked the Frederick County Marriage Licenses Index to Males 1778-1865, Carroll County, Maryland Marriage Licenses 1837-1899, the Washington County Marriage Licenses Index for the years 1830-1842, the indexes to volumes 1 and 7 of Maryland German Church Records, the Church Records - Marriages Index (various dates and parishes), the Chancery Court Records Index 1817-1831, the Indexes to the Censuses of 1850 and 1860 and various John Iler (Eiler, Eyler) households on the censuses of 1850 and 1860.

EQV
C4143

I have not found a marriage record that appears to concern the John and Catherine in question. The one record I found close to the time frame you gave was a Frederick County marriage license issued to John Eyler of Peter and Catherine Strine on August 28, 1832. I believe this couple to be the John and Catherine who lived in Woodsboro. I think that the John and Catherine in whom you are interested lived in Johnsville and were both born in or about 1811.

Thus, it appears that the only record we might have of this marriage would be a church record. The same holds true for birth records of their children, as there are no Frederick County civil birth records for the time period in question.

MARRIAGES OF WASHINGTON COUNTY, MARYLAND
An Index: 1799 - 1860
INTRODUCTION

Although Washington County, Maryland was formed in 1776, the earliest marriage indexes begin in 1799. The indexes and marriages from 1776 - 1798, and the marriages to the 1870's were destroyed by several courthouse fires. The index from 1799 - 1860, which is printed in four volumes, recorded the name of the groom, the name of the bride and the date. The four volumes are: I (A-E), II (F-K), III (L-R), and IV (S-Z). The marriages are in alphabetical order according to male surnames. Each volume containes a separate female index.

names became familiar later in the Monocacy and Catoctin Valleys. More complete records are available in the records of St. Mathews Lutheran Church of Hanover, copies of which are at the Historical Society of Adams Co. in Gettysburg. The baptisms in 1743 and before are believed to have been performed by Pastor David Candler. Unfortunately, the name of the mother was seldom recorded.

Brethren Church, and Rev. H. G. Bowers of the Lutheran. C. A. Buhrman is postmaster. The physician is Dr. L. M. Zimmerman, and the merchants Joseph Brown and Upton Buhrman. James W. Morgan is justice of the peace, George W. Main constable, and John Koogle surveyor. William Schildnecht has a tannery, A. R. Mowen a tin-shop, William Ludy a saw-mill, and B. F. Fout and Josiah Harp are the millers. Mrs. Caroline Biser keeps a boarding-house, and C. A. Buhrman a stationery-store. The village is filled with enterprising mechanics, and it is the chief seat of trade for a populous country for miles around.

When it was found that the Tories were gathering in large numbers at Castle's old building, near where Harmony Grove (Beallsville) is now located, in this district, the greatest consternation prevailed in Frederick Town. The bells were rung and the people convoked. A file of soldiers was immediately formed and dispatched to the hiding-place of the recusants. They were seized at once and brought to Frederick. A fair trial was instituted, and the Tories and spies underwent a searching examination. It was satisfactorily proven to the minds of the Committee of Safety that these men near Castle's were in communication with Knyphausen's men in the Jerseys and the Tories in Canada, that they gave information as to the situation of affairs in Frederick, and advised the British to seize upon the barracks, the magazine, and if necessary burn the town. Of the seven Tories tried three were hanged, and the Tory movement in the Middletown Valley was effectually suppressed.

The teachers in the district for the term ending April 15, 1881, were:

School No. 1, 38 pupils, C. H. Anversaght; No. 2, 50 pupils, C. C. Grossnickle; No. 3, 32 pupils, M. L. Rice; No. 4, 64 pupils, J. L. Lutz, H. E. Staley, assistant; No. 5, 81 pupils, D. U. Schildknecht, J. W. Wilson, assistant; No. 6, 41 pupils, T. L. Hauver; No. 7, 42 pupils, J. W. Gaver.

Harmony.—This pretty village is nine miles from Frederick, and is pleasantly situated in a healthy neighborhood, near Middle Creek. It contains a flourishing Dunker Church, one of the oldest in the county, and a Lutheran Church, the latter being part of the Middletown congregation. William B. Taylor is the postmaster, and with his son operates the woolen manufactory. The merchants are Joseph H. Bussard and George F. Williams. The other industries are E. Baker, Joseph Bebington, millwrights; Caton Blesson, M. Brandenburg, carpenters; G. Brady, G. W. Summers, millers; J. N. Brandenburg, blacksmith; J. E. Castle, George Harshman, shoemakers; D. Gladhill, wheelwright; George S. Harp, constable; P. R. Langdon, weaver; L. Rothanheafer, gunsmith; George Waehter, saddlery.

JOHNSVILLE DISTRICT, No. 17.

By an act of General Assembly of March 9, 1854, Johnsville, or Election District No. 17, was laid off and established out of parts of Liberty (No. 8) and Woodsborough (No. 11). It was laid out by Special Commissioners Nicholas Norris, Jacob Root, and Daniel S. Herring, as appointed in above act. Its boundaries were designated as follows: Commencing at or near the stone bridge across Pipe Creek near Diffendall's mill; thence by the most suitable line to the Hill school-house; thence to some point at or near the Copper-mine school-house; thence with the Copper-mine road to some point at or near Nicholas Norris' farm; from thence to Sam's Creek, the dividing line between Frederick and Carroll Counties; and thence with said dividing line to the place of beginning." The district, which is situated in the eastern portion of the county, is bounded by Carroll County on the north and east, Linganore District on the south, and Woodsborough District on the west. Among the early settlers were the Birely family, of German descent, numerous branches of which are found throughout the neighborhood and county. The Ilers were noted for their numbers and fine physical development. Peter Iler, who died in 1872, aged seventy years, left nine sons and twelve girls, all strong and hearty men and women. Of these sons not one weighed less than one hundred and eighty pounds. Mr. Iler never had a physician in his house for any of his twenty-one children. Among other pioneer families were the Fogles, Morts, Clemsons, Bastians, Stiteleys, Phillipses, Koonses, Shoemakers, Hammers, Snookses, Albaughs, McGuinises, Warners, Haughs, Carmacks, Johnsons, Norrises, Buckeys, Stoners, Bowmans, Foxes, Keefers, Martzes, Dutterds, Stulls, Renners, Crams, Flickingers, Bakers, and Grossnickles. The settlement in the district was first made about 1746.

Johnsville lies five miles from Union Bridge (Carroll Co.), and is pleasantly situated near Beaver Dam Creek. It took its name from the fact that when the village was first settled most of the Christian names of the first settlers were John. It has a large church of the Dunker congregation, a class of religionists very numerous in this district. Its physicians are Drs. Reuben Sidewell and his son, Frank H., and H. C. Devilbiss. The elder Dr. Sidewell was born in Chester County, Pa., and has had a large and lucrative practice here since 1846.

Western Maryland Lodge, I. O. O. F., was instituted in 1879, and has its hall over Dr. Sidewell's

SIMPSON UNITED METHODIST CHURCH - Gordon, Pennsylvania

CHURCH HISTORY - Compiled from the 100th Anniversary Booklet

In 1854 the first religious worship took place in the village. Rev. Joseph ADAMS of the Northumberland Presbytery preached in the school house every two weeks cintinuing this for several years. Methodists living in the village teamed with the Presbyterians in organizing a union Sunday School in the same schoolhouse.

1857 to 1872 - ROOTS OF METHODISM IN GORDON: The increase of people coming into the Gordon area soon required more spiritual guidance. In 1857 the Methodist group asked Rev. John A. DE MOYER of the Catawissa circuit of the Baltimore Methodist Conference to come to Gordon "to preach the word". The following year, the original Methodist Society was gorganized. Worship services were alternated with the Presbyterians being served at that time by Rev. Robert O. BRYSON of Ashland. As time went by, the Methodists were served by various ministers from nearby places; among them were: Revs. KEETER, STEVENS, CATHERS, BICKERTON, MC KEE, MULLEN, MC WILLIAMS, SHIELDS, TRIGILLIS and DRAKE.

1872 to 1880 - METHODISM ESTABLISHED IN GORDON: Rev. James F. SATCHELL was the first officially appointed pastor to serve the Methodists. He was appointed by the Philadelphia Conference in 1872 and served to 1874. Rev. Josiah BOWDEN was next appointed and served one year, when succeeded by Rev. James SAMPSON who served to 1877. In June 1877, Rev. C. D. DRAKE was appointed to the charge serving one year when Rev. Nathan B. SMITH was appointed and served until 1880

1880 to 1883 - PRESENT CHURCH BUILT: Rev. H. N. MINNICH served during these three years. The cornerstone was laid July 3, 1881, and on Jan. 8, 1882 the new church was dedicated by Bishop SIMPSON and named the Simpson Methodist Episcopal Church in his honor.

CITIZENS CEMETERY - Gordon, Penna. - located on the Ashland road not very far out of Gordon. I guess the location would be or should be listed as Barry Township. Anyway, for years this cemetery was overrun with vegetation. The Boy Scouts under the leadership of David SNYDER began the job of clearing it off each year for the 30th of May, long after I was out of Scouting, and now even after the death of David, the job continues as an Annual project for the local Troop 180. The cemetery itself runs up a hillside, and I would imagine at one time there was a pattern to the layout of the grave sites, however, there are so many unmarked graves, establishing this pattern is almost impossible. There is a crypt on the cemetery that is open with a date on the door which escapes me at this time. There are several thoughts as to the use of the crypt. Some believe it to be an actual grave site because on the inside there are names written (I never noticed them and played in the crypt for years as a youngster), others say it was a holding place for those who died of a contagious disease until the burial, and others say it was a tool building of years gone by. Which ever, it stands there open and tumbling down for all to enter. With the assistance of Ginger (LENTES) MERVINE, I compiled this cemetery in June of 1988, and sorry I waited to long to do so, as the cemetery has been the victim of two recent vandalisms. Stones were destroyed, pushed over, and one crypt was opened in a robbery attempt, I doubt if anything was found, but the top slab was destroyed with their effort. Anyway, we copied the stones as we found them.

Dear Mr. Peadon,

Your letter to our Librarian was passed to me, secretary for Anderson County Historical Society. Hopefully I can be of some help. The Iler name is one I recognized as having seen several times in reading history. I find one mention in the 1876 history of the county which states "he was one of Garnett's most prominent men..."

The 1876 history has 4 references; the 1877 history has 14; and the 1936 history has 8 references. I can copy these for 25 cents a page. (see enclosed chart about books)

The alphabetized list of marriages shows for Anderson co:

ILER

Iler Geo. W. & M. E. Osborn mr. 3-5-1867 book - pg 116
William Allen & Margaret Poss 1-14-1901 E 179 TL0013
Ida & Robert A Davis 5-15-1879 B 83 TL0011
Bertha & Donald Edgar Bolman 5-11-1903 E 246 TL0016
Helna & Chas. F. Renzenberger 7-16-1903 E 255 ?
(Helna is the way it shows)
Sarah Katherine & Clarence Matthews 5-21-1900 E 35 TL0015
Lou I & Harry F. DeWolf 11-1-1887 C 97 TL0014
Agnes & Geo.N. De Wolf 8-19-1880 B 132 TL0012

I can tell you that the names Poss and Renzenberger were of the Greeley area of Anderson co. And that was the area first settled - in 1854 - and settlers spread across the county from there.

The 1936 history was of items taken from newspapers which were in 1936 the Garnett Review. The items go through 1932 - and since it seems obits always were included and Goerge's not, then I'd say he died after that date. I could be mistaken.

One of our historical society members has about ready (all but the index) for publication, similar items from the newspapers which came down to The Anderson Countian. - she began with papers I believ in 1869 - and will include all she can in her book... I know she has read into the 1940's, but think pages are limited and won't include all she has read. ($1.00 a year dues to Anderson Co. Hist. Soc.) would get you the newsletter (mailed under RC&D office in Ottawa - so watch your mail if you join) would keep you posted on publication date.

Wish I knew someone here who would help you -- I never have much time for helping folks as I work - and now my husband has had cancer surgery and I will begin tomorrow taking him each afternoon (after working half days) 64 miles (one way) for radiation treatments for 28 days. Everything will be closed by the time we return the 64 miles...

One thing I think I can offer you is a copy of the 1976 reprint of the county histories. I had opportunity to purchase one recently and offered it already to a person who had expressed a desire to obtain one....but he has passed the time limit I gave him ... These books sell for $50.00 here - and I felt sure I would sell for the same. This one really looks as if it has never been opened -- at least just by carefully trying to open it...it does have a smear of the gold on the emblem on the cover across the maroon leather-look cover and a few black marks on the outer edges of the pages - as if it had been pushed around some. I have not opened to examine each page, however. (The 1936 history which is included was NOT well indexed and reading page by page one usually finds much more they did not otherwise find.

There were other early settlers in the Greeley area from Maryland - and many settlers from Ohio, but none that i have been aware of from Tuscarawas co, nor from Wells co., Ind.

Hope I have helped some.

Most sincerely,
Juanita

A GOOD MAN HAS LEFT US

Mr. George W. Iler Has Gone to His Reward.

The news, yesterday, about noon, that Mr. George W. Iler had been called up higher, was no surprise to the people of Garnett, for he has been suffering death a thousand times during the past several months. Yet, the news was sad—very sad—for he was one of Garnett's best-loved citizens. Everybody loved him, and he was everybody's friend. His life was made up of good deeds, though he did not proclaim them from the housetops. He led a true Christian life—he was a consistent follower of the Lowly Nazarene. In his death, the community will feel a loss such as it has not felt in many a year.

MR. GEO W. ILER

We shall not attempt, today, to review Mr. Iler's life story, but will do so tomorrow, briefly.

The funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Congregational church. After the services at the church, the mortal remains of our friend and neighbor will be placed in its little home in the pretty White City on the hill, beside loved ones gone before.

The grief-stricken family has the deepest sympathy of the entire community.

THE REVIVAL MEETINGS

Good Attendance Yesterday Notwithstanding the Storm.

All the meetings at the Methodist church yesterday, were well attended, and the interest was fine. There were three conversions yesterday, making five for the week—not a large number, but enough to make the meetings worth while.

Sixty men were in attendance at the men's meeting in the afternoon, and the meeting was in charge of the laymen, who did the talking. It was a very profitable meeting, and the results will be felt a long time. The evening sermon was devoted to the failures and successes of Christianity based on the parable of "The Sower." One kind of seed, four kinds of soil Three failures, one success.

Among the evidences of the success of Christianity, he mentioned the work of the Gideons, for the traveling men the Men and Religion Forward Movement; the Gospel team work. The finest of the world's music the best of architecture and the ideals wrought out by sculptors are all inspired by the gospel of the Christ, and evidences of the successes.

He admitted a great many failures, for which we are pained and grieved, and over which often the ungodly boast, and make these failures their excuse for not becoming Christians. A good many start out right, unite with the church and soon drop back to the old ways. Failures. Many who have named the name of Christ stay away from the services, and their lives witness against the Christ. Failures Undependable. Two-thirds and more of the people of our nation are non Christians. The enormous sums spent for tobacco, rum and other useless things. In some ways there is failure. Where lies the cause? Some Christians fail; some preachers fail; some churches fail. In Jesus time the same thing happened. He sowed the same kind of seed always. Three failures, one success. He was a great preacher, and drew great crowds, but won but few followers. Less response then than now. They cried "Away with him! Crucify him!" He said it was due to the soil. Speaking of the blame laid onto the church and Sunday schools for men and boys going wrong, and especially of the young man who was sentenced last week for murder here, he said the Sunday school and churches might be at fault, but that young man

HE HAS GONE TO HIS REWARD

Geo. W. Iler's Body Rests in the White City.

This afternoon, at 2 o'clock, the mortal remains of Geo. W. Iler was conveyed from his home to the Congregational church, where he had been a communicant many years, and the funeral service was conducted by Rev. John P. Martin, pastor of the church. He was assisted by Rev. F. R. Beery and Rev. Ira M. Benham.

The members of the I. O. O. F. accompanied the body from the home to the church, and, after the service, to the cemetery. Mr. Iler had been a member of this order ever since its organization here.

The business houses of the city were closed during the services in honor of one who had so long been engaged in business here. He was one of Garnett's first business men, and continued in business until a little more than a year ago.

The church was filled with neighbors and friends, many of whom had known Mr. Iler many years, and a large number followed his body to its last resting place, in the Garnett cemetery.

George Washington Iler was born in Frederick county, Maryland, February 28, 1830, so was rapidly nearing the eighty-fourth milestone in life's journey.

He worked on his father's farm till he was twenty-three years old, and then came west to Indianapolis, Ind. In the spring of 1857, he came to Leavenworth, remaining till fall. In November, he and four other young men decided to return to Indianapolis. They intended going to St. Louis by boat, but when they went down to the wharf, they were informed that the boat they expect[illegible] take was los-

THE REVIVAL MEETINGS

There Was Another Good Meeting Last Night.

The sermon by Rev. Odom last night was based on the story of the rich young ruler. The text: "What Lack I Yet?"—the words of a splendid and clean young man, but a man who knew there was a great lack in his life. He might have been better than most of his neighbours, but he had an ambition to live the beautiful life Christ represented, and asked Jesus how to find that life.

He said many people try to meet the demands of the Christian life by bolstering up their consciences, by comparisons with their neighbors and by casting sums into the Lord's treasury, but that these do not meet the demands.

This young man went away sorrowful because he would not pay the price of personal sacrifice. He was living wholly for this life, and was unwilling to change his program.

It costs something to live the life that satisfies the conscience and satisfies God. But it costs infinitely more not to do so.

The price men pay to belong to the "church of the world" is much more than the price to pay to belong to the church of Christ.

Sin is a mortgage upon the life, and interest and principal must be paid. How many are putting emphasis upon the wrong thing?

The young man went away. Where did he go? Where are the men going today who are turning away from Christ?

There were two conversions last night, and a good audience, but not as many people as ought to be present at a time when the army of the Lord is drawn up in battle array vember, he and four other young men decided to return to Indianapolis. They intended going to St. Louis by boat, but when they went down to the wharf, they were informed that the boat they expected to take was ice-bound up the river, and there would be no boat for some time. They then concluded to drive across the state of Missouri if they could find somebody with a team to take them; but they failed to find the man with a team who would take them. However, they were young men of spirit and determination, and decided to "foot it" across the state.

They packed their carpet bags and crossed the Missouri river on a flatboat, and struck out across the country. The young men finally reached Hannibal, Mo., where they boarded a boat bound for St. Louis. Reaching that point, they took the train for Indianapolis.

Soon after arriving at Indianapolis, Mr. Iler was married, his bride being Miss Rachel C. Byrkit. They returned to Leavenworth, and, in 1859, came to Garnett—and this has been his home ever since. Mrs. Iler died in 1865, leaving her husband and two daughters, Ida (now Mrs. R. A. Davis) and Agnes (Mrs. Geo. N. DeWolf.)

Mr. Iler was elected chairman of the Garnett town site board, and he went to Lecompton, horseback, and filed the papers in the land office.

Mr. Iler and William Bayles engaged in the general merchandise business, which they carried on a number of years. Mr. Iler sold out to W. L. Frankenberger, and the firm was Bales & Frankenberger. Mr. Iler engaged in the real estate and insurance business, and for years, he and Capt. S. Kauffman were in partnership in this line of business. Finally, the firm was dissolved, and Mr. Iler continued alone, and built up a splendid business. He took his son, Will, in partnership, and, recently, sold his interest to D. N. Simmons.

In 1868, Mr. Iler married again, the bride being Miss Mary E. Osborn, who, later, died, leaving her husband, a son, Will, and three daughters, Lou, Kate and Bertha, who are now, respectfully, Mrs. Harry DeWolf, Mrs. Clarence Matthews and Mrs. Don Bolman.

Mr. Iler's life was without a blemish. He always enjoyed the confidence of everyone with whom he had dealings or with whom he has come in contact, and was honored by all who knew him. His was a well-spent life, and he rests well.

There were two conversions last night, and a good audience, but not as many people as ought to be present at a time when the army of the Lord is drawn up in battle array.

Come tonight. IRA M. BENHAM.

But They Didn't Move.

Several days ago, The Review said Mr. and Mrs. Uly Hannum had moved from Bonner Springs to Edwardsville, but, according to a letter received from Mrs. Hannum this morning, they haven't moved. Here's the letter:

"You think I am slow. So I am—but remember my SIZE. Ha! Ha! The paper got here nearly as soon as I did. You have the wrong idea. We live near both Bonner Springs (a mile and a half) and Edwaresville (two miles and a half), but we are on the rural route out of Edwardsville; so that's why we get mail that way. See? But I never was in Edwardsville, and in fact, I have not been in Bonner Springs since May. I stay at home and fuss with my chickens. They are all "blondes," and are as pretty as chickens can be."

Was Fined $10.

George Martin, a farmer living near Colony, entered a plea of guilty to a charge of assault, in Justice Johnson's court at Colony, Saturday. The charge was made by John Ketchum, another farmer. As Martin bombarded Ketchum with brickbats and stones, in the principal street of the town, in the presence of an ordinary Saturday crowd, there was not much chance for a defense, and defendant discreetly pleaded guilty. As the Justice drew the complaint, and defendant at once acknowledged the corn, neither the sheriff nor county attorney (both of whom were present) were entitled to a cent of costs. The Justice got his —$3.25—and collected a fine of $10 for the county.

Visited Horse Show, Too.

Mrs. F. D. Murdock returned last night from a visit of several days at Kansas City and St. Joe, Mo.

While in Kansas City, Mrs. Murdock was the guest of Mrs. Ellery Parks. Mrs. C. S. Coleman, of Garnett, and Mrs. W. L. Upham, of Wellsville, were also in Kansas City, guests of Mrs. Frank Ratcliff. Thursday night, the five ladies formed a party and visited the horse show, which Mrs. Murdock says was one of the finest sights she ever witnessed. The decorations ren-

—James McAdams, a former resident of this city, but now farming in Kingman county, arrived in the city, Tuesday last. He has been absent about 4 years and he is greatly surprised at the improvements made in that time.

—E. H. Voorhees looks sad and lonely and it's all because his wife has gone to Iola to spend the week with her brother, James P. Boyd. Mr. V. says he proposes to seek relief by resuming his old occupation as commercial representative for the St. Joe Stove Co., and will take to the road about July 10th.

—Many of the Garnett people attending the Ottawa assembly returned home Friday and Saturday last, owing to the disagreeable condition of the grounds after the rain of Thursday night and Friday morning. Among those who returned after ten days sojourn at the grounds, we noticed Mrs. Geo. DeWolf, Rev. Grundey and wife, Jack Tillson and wife, Prof. J. B. Robinson, M. F. The Death of Mrs. G. W. Iler.

Monday afternoon the startling information of Mrs. Mary E. Iler's death was given out. She had been in good health up to about May 10th, when she had her teeth extracted, chloroform being used by her physician in the operation. Her illness may be dated from May 20th, at which time she was taken with chill, followed by an attack of muscular rheumatism, from which she rallied in a few days, and was apparently recovering, being up and around for nearly a week, visiting the dentist's office again in the meanwhile to leave an impression for her teeth. May 27th she was again taken down, still complaining of muscular pains and a general soreness in all parts of the body. She was apparently relieved by her physician, but later on was troubled with swelling of the joints and bronchial trouble, which resulted in an abscess of the upper lobe of right lung. Monday morning last she appeared easier and her friends had ceased to be anxious regarding her case, deeming the critical point in the disease had passed, and Mr. Iler took the opportunity to go into the country to attend to some urgent business. She appeared to rest easily until about 1:15 p. m., when she raised up to cough, being supported by her son Will and the physician, and while in the act of laying back the abscess broke internally, causing almost instant death. She passed away without a word or a struggle. The funeral services took place at the family residence, Wednesday, with an unusually large attendance.

Her sudden death was a sad shock to her friends, who had been laboring under the impression that she was in a fair way to recover, and when the information was first given out it could hardly be credited.

She possessed many fine traits of character, and had won a large circle of friends by her warm hearted disposition and sympathetic manner. Generous and public spirited, her presence was always demanded and her aid solicited in all public movements in which the ladies of the city took part. She will be greatly missed by all who knew her, and doubly so by the husband and children, who worshipped her beyond the power of words to express. The entire community sympathizes with them in their bereavement.

Apparently in the prime of life and usefulness, presenting every indication of vigorous health, with every thing to live for that makes life desirable, her sudden departure for another world caused the most sanguine to pause a moment in the pursuits of life and ask, "Can it really be that one we knew and loved shall exist hereafter only in memory?" Surely we all have reason to pause and look around and amongst us and wonder who will next be called to lay aside the image of clay and the spirit return to the unknown shore beyond the river.

Mary Elizabeth Osborn, daughter of Allen U. and Sallie Osborn, was born in Guilford county, North Carolina, Oct. 5, 1811. She was converted and joined the Reformed Methodist church at the age of 16. Removed with her parents to Indiana in 1861, and came to Kansas in 1866, and March 5, 1867, was married to George W. Iler.

She was a most faithful wife and devoted mother, attending with loving care to all the details of her home. "The heart of her husband safely trusted in her; her children rise up and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her." In her home an aged mother still survives, who has for years been the recipient of her tender care. Mrs. Iler was a valued member of society, a good neighbor, a faithful friend, and the efficient corresponding secretary of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. church at this place.

She died June 27, 1887, aged 42 years, 8 months and 21 days.

Her death is a sad blow to the family and community. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. F. Rhodes, assisted by Revs. Strong and Penniman, after which the remains were laid to rest in the city cemetery, attended by a vast concourse of citizens. J. F. R.

I observe Dominic Chick has been taking a rest gallanting ladies considerably his senior, of late. Stay with the young ladies, Joseph, your namesake of old got into serious and complicated troubles on account of a married lady.

A number of our young men have been studying medicine for some time. Prof. Hudson is expected here soon, when he will orally demonstrate the benefits of medical lore and cost of the same.

I heard one of our neighbors expressing himself rather forcibly in regard to an eastern visitor. Keep your temper, friend Taylor, old General Abercromby was taught to know when an American wished a piece of property he generally got it, and the young lady has a mind of her own.

Extensive preparations are being made to accommodate the large crowd expected on the 4th in Mrs. James' grove. All are invited, and to take lunch baskets well filled. Refreshment stands, a dancing platform, swings and other amusements will be on the ground. The surplus receipts to be used for christian purposes.

Some of our sporting men after losing considerable time last Saturday in pursuit of game with very limited success, either accidentally or otherwise shot a mule belonging to one of the neighbors. Rather expensive sport, Tom. Better go to Arkansas where game is small and easier to handle.

A bachelor neighbor left his corn field the other day and went to Garnett with a bill of necessaries for his housekeeper, comprising flour, tea, sugar, etc., and a gasoline stove. He arrived at home about midnight with a paper of pins and fifteen boxes of wagon grease. Perhaps the young lady has tested the stove to her satisfaction. Take it home, Frank, it is hard for your housekeeper to have to cut dry hickory with a dull ax.

I observe Bachelor Elliot is rather stealing a march on me in taking a cross-cut through the fields to reach a residence north of the school house, ostensibly for the purpose of playing euchre. Older men than you have been euchred and you may too, by sweet sixteen.

For the benefit of the musical world I would say I heard Miss Gardner practicing the old song:

"Come along Mr. Coon,
You're a little too soon;
The girls won't be ready
Till to-morrow afternoon.

Ma advised, be sparing in your invitations, Maggie, coons are worth watching.

As I am a young and single man I have made arrangements to go west and spread myself with the country, but shall keep you posted on camping, coon meat, corn coffee and cooking buffalo hams for CROSS CUT.

New York, June 21.—A Washington dispatch to the Telegram says:

"An exciting scene occurred at the White House to-day. A man with a long gray beard, wearing the uniform of the Grand Army of the Republic walked up to the south entrance directly under the window where the president was standing and began reading extracts from General Fairchild's anti-ex-confederate speech in a loud voice. Then he knelt down and spreading a small American flag before him on the POLLARD & PEIRCE, general merchants. This business was originally established in the spring of 1870 by Crouse & Wittich, with a stock of about $1,300. In August, 1882, the business was purchased by the present firm. H. G. Pollard, the senior member of the firm, was in the employ of the old firm for some seven years, has an extensive acquaintance throughout the country, and being popular controls considerable trade. S. Peirce, his partner, is from Hagerstown, Ind., where for six years he was engaged in conducting a flax-mill. They carry a well assorted stock of goods of about $15,000 and do the leading business in Garnett.

NICHOLAS PONTIOUS, Deputy Sheriff of Anderson County, was born in Pickaway County, Ohio, November 25, 1838. There he followed agricultural pursuits, carrying on a farm of 100 acres. In September, 1869, he came to Anderson County, Kan., and farmed for seven years in Monroe Township. Afterward he opened a restaurant at Garnett and conducted it for a year. He then opened the Garnett House, which hotel he carried on for two years. Afterward gave his attention to teaming, draying, etc. During 1881 he served as Constable in the city of Garnett and in January, 1882, was appointed to his present position.

DR. G. J. ROGERS, was born in Trumbull County, Ohio, in 1827. He studied medicine at Warren, Ohio, with Prof. William Payne, attending Cleveland Medical College, and graduating there. He practiced in Ashland County for two years, then at Bowling Green, the county-seat of Wood County. In February, 1878, he came to Garnett, and for several years the money twice over for one section of the land on which the town stands to-day.

Garnett was made the county seat of Anderson county in the summer of 1859, and has remained so ever since.

G. A. Cook, Esq., was the first Sheriff elected in Anderson county, which office he held as long as the law would allow. Again he was elected at a later date. Of late he has settled down to be the Garnett Justice.

Geo. W. Iler was one of Garnett's most prominent men, having filled various offices of trust, and for a long time was one of its most prominent merchants.

Dr. Thomas Lindsay was one of Garnett's first and most prominent men. He served various terms in the Legislature of our State; he has been Anderson county's physician for eighteen years, and has built up an enviable reputation.

Dr. G. W. Cooper, though noticed in several places in this history, deserves more than a passing notice. He is one of Anderson county's first settlers, and has always placed his mark high to catch the early glimpses of the rising sun; has been a physician in our midst for a score of years; was somewhat connected with the Plaindealer in its early stages. At one time, its editor. Finally feeling the great need of two healthy political parties in Anderson county, threw himself into the breach and declared that where nominations were equivocal to an election, that a bad man who intended to make more than legal fees out of the office, would go to extreme lengths to procure his nomination even if he had to spend a great deal of money indirectly to procure it. He also saw the great need of an opposition journal for Anderson county, where each side of every question may be viewed and discussed by every one of different opinions; so, in 1872, he bought a press and established the GARNETT WEEKLY JOURNAL. It has continued to rise in importance like Mahomet's banner of the new moon, until its circulation exceeds every other in Anderson county.

Among Garnett's early settlers there appears a luminous object in the person of Captain John G. Lindsay, who is not behind any man in Garnett, or even the county, in a full knowledge of all the relations and things pertaining to its political history. Early in life he became a student of law, and it is as familiar to him as an old shoe. He served in our late war as first lieutenant and captain; then coming home he was honored with our law-making fraternity for several years in succession.

FAIRS.

Preliminary steps were taken in the summer and fall of 1862-3 to establish a permanent county fair, but owing to the usual customs of our country generally, we went too fast and it broke down with its weight, but not until it had developed to a great degree a fact that Anderson county was making rapid strides to prosperity. Again it was re-organized in the spring of 1873 as a joint stock company, who purchased a lot of ground one mile west of Garnett, and have taken steps to lay off, ornament and build up a permanent agricultural, mechanical and industrial institution for the proper development of our vast resources. The following are the directors: James E. White, president; Thomas Gowdy, A. T. Cook, Edward Rayn, W. H. Conover, A. C. Messenger, Robert Mundell, G. W. Iler, and I. P. Sutton.

OUR SOIL, ITS TREATMENT, &C.

Another noted fact which has come under my observation is, that as the soil became rotted by an annual increase in the depth of plowing, the failures have been far less than on lands which are in a wild, or partial state of cultivation, and also, that the oldest farms in Anderson county on the same kind of land, are much surer for crops than new lands. Anderson county has always been a healthy location for cattle, hogs and horses, and certainly the most profitable occupa-eternity yet to be. The noble tasks peculiar to wifehood and motherhood have been ably and unselfishly performed by the worthy lady of whom the biographer has essayed to write in the preceding paragraphs, and throughout a long and useful career she has well sustained the character and reputation which have won her the love and gratitude of her immediate family circle and the unbounded esteem of the community in which her life has so long been an influence for good and an inspiration to noble aims and ideals. Hers has indeed been a full life, true to the highest conception of right, and thoroughly consecrated to the good of others, hence all who know her call her blessed and are proud to be numbered among her friends.

In viewing the mass of mankind in relation to the varied occupations of life, the conclusion is forced upon the observer that in the vast majority of cases men have sought employment not in the line of their peculiar fitness, but rather in those fields where caprice or circumstances have placed them, thus explaining the cause of the failure of so large a percentage of those who enter professional or commercial circles. In isolated cases we find, however, that men have seemed endowed with the prescience which enables them to select the vocation for which they are best adapted, and such an instance is offered in the case of the honored subject of this review, who is one of the venerable physicians of Butler county, and who attained marked success and prestige in the noble profession to which he devoted so many years of his life, being now practically retired from practice, though responding to the calls of the families to whom he has ministered for so long a time and by whom he is held in affectionate regard. He retains his residence in Blueball, an attractive village in Lemon township, where he has made his home for more than half a century and where his friends are in number as his acquaintances, so that he may well feel that in the golden evening of his life his "lines are cast in pleasant places."

The honored pioneer physician to whom this sketch is dedicated is a native son of Ohio and a representative of a sterling family which settled here in the early days when the now populous and opulent section was little more than a sylvan wilderness. He was born in Franklin township, this county, on Christmas day, 1820, and is a son of Jacob and Margaret (Dean) Iler, the former of whom was born in Germany and the latter in the state of New Jersey, whence she came with her parents to Ohio when a young girl. The father of the Doctor became a successful farmer of Butler county, and here he died in the very flower of his vigorous young manhood, being survived by two children, the Doctor and one daughter, Mary Ann, who died in Kansas City, Missouri, in 1893. The subject was but eighteen months of age at the time of his father's death and was taken to the home of his maternal grandfather, in Franklin township, this county, where he was reared to the age of fourteen years, in the meanwhile attending the somewhat primitive schools of the locality and thus laying the foundation of that broad and exact fund of knowledge which he has accumulated during the long years of a signally active and successful career. He accompanied his grandfather on his removal to Darke county, and when fourteen years old he ran away and returned to Butler county, where he joined his mother, who had in the meanwhile been married a second time. Shortly afterward she bound him out to a blacksmith, under whose direction he learned the trade, becoming a capable workman. The work proved too severe a physical test, however, and the Doctor did not long devote his attention to the same. He continued his studies in a select school in Middletown, and in the meanwhile engaged in farm work and teaching in order to secure the funds necessary for the pursuing of his further educational work. He soon formulated definite plans for his future life work, determining to adopt the medical profession. He began his technical reading under the direction of a local preceptor and finally entered the Ohio Medical College, in Cincinnati, where he was graduated as a member of the class of 1851, receiving the degree of Doctor of Medicine and coming forth well fortified for the active work of his profession He immediately established himself in practice at Blueball, this county, where he has ever since maintained his home and has built up a large and representative practice in this section of the county, having ministered to a large majority of the leading families in the locality and being now frequently called upon to attend the children of those at whose birth he attended. Dr. Iler is known to practically every person, young and old, in this section, and his name is honored in the county in which he has so long lived and labored, while he has ever held a high place in the confidence and esteem of his professional confreres. He withdrew from active practice in 1902, having attained the age of more than four score years, but those to whom he has been family physician for so many years still call upon him for professional service, so that he finds it impossible to entirely lay aside the work which has claimed so much of his life. His attractive home is located on a four-acre tract of land, and across the road from the same he owns a well-improved and valuable farm of one hundred and sixty acres. In politics the Doctor is a stanch advocate of the principles of the Democratic party, and his religious views are in harmony with the tenets of the Presbyterian church, though he is not formally identified with the same. It should be noted that at the time of the war of the Rebellion Dr. Iler did effective service at the front, having enlisted in 1864 as surgeon of the One Hundred and Eighty-second Regiment of Ohio Volunteer Infantry, with which he continued to serve until the close of the war. a 02011* - >8435

On November 11, 1852, Dr. Iler was married to Miss Margaret J. Carr, who was born and reared in this county and who died in 1866, being survived by two daughters, Dora, who died in Chicago in 1891, and A———, who is the wife of Scott McClellan, who has charge of the Doctor's farm, while the daughter presides over the home of her venerable father, to whom she accords the utmost filial solicitude. Dr. Iler has accomplished a noble and unselfish work in this community and his name is entitled to a place of honor on the roll of the representative citizens and able physicians of his native county.

Some five years after, her husband came to Richland Co. and purchased 80 acres in the northwest quarter of Sec. 27, where Mrs. Hornberger now resides. He died September, 1853, aged about 48 years. He was born in Franklin Co., Penn.; they had five children, three of whom are living. The children being small at the death of her husband, she was compelled to take the management of the farm and provide for the wants of her family, for which she deserves special credit. She is of Pennsylvania-German parentage. Her oldest son, Hiram, is married to Margaret Cox, and is engaged in railroading at Galion. Samuel, her next son, is married to Sarah May, and resides on the farm. Her daughter Sarah is married to Simon Shatzer, and resides near her. The two deceased were Rebecca and Catharine, aged 14 and 29 years respectively.

HUMMEL, J. M., farmer and stock-raiser, was born in Dauphin Co., Penn., in March, 1818; he spent his youth on a farm; when 18 years of age, he commenced the trade of saddlery with his brother in Hummelstown, Penn., and continued to follow that trade twenty-five years; desirous of obtaining a farm, he sold his property and emigrated, in 1864, with his family, to Ohio, where he purchased a tract of 80 acres in Madison Township, about two miles north of Mansfield; he remained there about eight years, and sold his farm and purchased the southwest quarter of Sec. 12, where he now resides; he came of Pennsylvania-German parentage; he is an excellent farmer, a pleasant neighbor, and has the respect of the community. He was married to Miss Elizabeth Hertzel in December, 1843; they had eight children, five of whom are living.

ILER, JOHN, farmer; P. O. Shelby; was born in Richland Co. Feb. 26, 1842; when he was about 6 months old, his father died and left a family of four small children to be supported by the mother; being poor, she was compelled to put her children out among strangers; she found a pleasant home for them with John F. Rice, the "old soldier," of whom a full notice will be found elsewhere in this book; his mother died when the subject of this notice was about 6 years old, so he was early deprived of the fostering care of a mother; he remained at his adopted home until the fall of 1862, when he enlisted in Co. C, 20th O. V. I., for nine months; after he returned home, he resumed farming. He is an ardent Democrat, and takes an active interest in the affairs of the community. He was married to Miss Mary Sheets, of Richland Co.; they have seven children.

KERR, WILLIAM, farmer; he was born in Washington, Penn., Nov. 7, 1810; his father, James Kerr, came to Ohio about 1810, and entered 160 acres of land in Sec. 1, Jackson Township; he then returned to Pennsylvania and at different times came to Ohio, entering some 800 acres; in the year 1820, he, with his family, consisting of himself, wife and four children, came to Ohio and settled where T. C. Dunlap now lives, some four miles east of where Shelby now stands; he cleared up the farm; in 1830, he built a grist-mill on Richland Run, probably the first water-mill in the limits of Jackson Township; it stood several years, and did quite a business; the first miller was Mr. Urie, who milled for several years, and was followed by William Kerr, the subject of this notice; he was followed by Mr. Sellers; the mill stood until 1853, when Mr. Kerr took some of the timber and put it into his barn which he was then building; the mill-race is still to be seen. James Kerr died in May, 1839; his wife survived him for a number of years and died aged over 80 years. William Kerr has resided near where he now lives ever since he has been in Ohio; he has always been engaged on the farm except the time he was occupied as miller. He was married to Nancy N. Crabbs in June, 1849; they had five children, four of whom are living; his wife died in 1862, and he was again married to Sarah Seaton in 1864; they have three children.

KIRKPATRICK, JEREMIAH, farmer; P. O. Shelby; he was born in Perry Co., Penn., in June, 1821; his father, Joseph Kirkpatrick, with his wife and family of six children, emigrated to Ohio in the fall of 1831, and remained over winter in Mansfield; he moved north to Jackson and entered an 80-acre tract of land in Sec. 22; he died in 1844; his wife survived him many years, dying in January, 1877, aged about 85 years. The subject of this notice remained with his parents, helping to clear up the farm and do such work as is usual in a new country; he received his education in the district schools of the county; he is a man of general information, and has the confidence and esteem of his neighbors; he is a consistent member of the Lutheran Church; he joined that denomination at an early age, and has very materially aided in building up that body in the community; he is a careful farmer, and his farm bears the marks of good management. He was married to Miss Catherine Flora Nov. 7, 1844; they had eleven children, nine of whom are living.

KIRKPATRICK, AMOS, farmer; P. O. Shelby; was born Aug. 3, 1850, in Jackson Township; he is a son of Jeremiah and Catherine Kirkpatrick; he remained with his parents until he arrived at the age of manhood; he worked at home and in the community until he was married to Miss Christiana Neal, April 23, 1874; they have three children—Elmer Luther, Joseph Lorenzo and Archie Melvin. Mrs. Kirkpatrick was born in Jackson Township March 20, 1852; she has always remained in the vicinity of where she was born; she received her educational training in the common school.

KUHN, MARY, MRS., widow of Jacob Kuhn, was born in Franklin Co., Penn., March, 1827; her father, George Shafer, emigrated to Ohio in 1839, and settled

SUMMIT COUNTY CHAPTER

William Peadon
6113 South McNutt Ave
Ashtabula OH 44004

Dear Mr Peadon;

I'm very sorry to take so long to answer your requests for information on Arthur and Nancy ILER. Since we don't have our own building I answer the mail at my home, and an arm injury has had me typing more or less one-handed.

The enclosed check list will show you the books we have published. I have checked the indexes for Arthur and Nancy ILER and came up empty handed. Only one book had any ILERS at all in it and the information is as follows:
XQD
Pg 8 :Andrew Iler (Father) 1877-1919; buried St Augustine's Cemetery; Row 20
Pg 15 :Andy Iler; Jun 2, 1919
This is from the burial record and cemetery book of the caretaker of St Augustine's Cemetery and would indicate the burial took place 2 Jun 1919.

I have checked the 5 Generation Charts our members have turned in but unfortunately no one has turned in one for the ILER surname. No one has turned in anything on the Sperry name even though Ira SPERRY was quite a mover and shaker in early Summit County. One chart was turned in in 1980 for the SHULER surname. The lady submitting the chart shows an Ida SHULER-born & died Gallia Co OH-1872-1907. She married a BLACKBURN and their son Alonzo came to Summit Co and died here 1976. I don't know if this may help or not. I'm sending this lady's address. She is no longer a member of our Chapter so I don't know if you will be able to reach her or not.

Concerning an obituary for John M ILER, who d 9 Oct 1917, I will refer you back to Marian Davies at the public library. She has old newspapers on microfilm and can check the date of death for a copy of an obituary.

I'm going to offer another suggestion as to where you could write for additional help. You stated John M ILER's death certificate listed Green Twp, Summit Co, OH as a place of death. Also that he was apparently buried in Massillon, which is in Stark County.

Before Summit County was formed in 1840, Green Twp belonged to Stark County. The Stark Co Chapter, OGS has published several Cemetery Inscription Books. I have a couple of them, but not the one for burials in the city of Massillon. It was not uncommon for people living in Green Twp to migrate between Stark and Summit Counties.

As a courtesy to you we will print a query for you, free of charge, in an upcoming issue of our monthly newsletter "The Highpoint". Hopefully someone will have information on your ILERS and get in touch with you. The query will contain the names and information found in your letter; and give your name and address if someone wants to get in touch with you.

I will file your ancestors names and will notify you if anyone writes concerning them or the ILER surname. I'm sorry I can't be of more help at this time. I wish you Good Luck in your search and Happy Hunting!

Sincerely,

Marlene

As for our library hours, a brochure is enclosed with the new hours given. For March and April, we are open Tuesday and Saturday from 11 to 4. Beginning in May, we have new summer hours. We are going to be open five days a week. Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday from 11 am to 3 pm. For our out of towners, we have always had the policy that if other research times are needed, we can usually find a volunteer to give access, if they just let us know they're coming.

Yes, I'd be happy to do research for you. I am caught up with research and not behind in any files. I have worked like wild these last two weeks to get all caught up. Over 125 letters in six weeks. But they are all done except for the typing which I am finishing up today.

I am going this week end on a two week trip to Pennsylvania and Maryland for clients. I'm going to Harrisburg, the State Archive and the State Library. I'm spending most of my time in Emmaus, Bethlehem, Nazareth. Continuing work on Moravian lines for clients. I'm also going to Maryland for a couple of clients. Is there anything you would like checked over there? I'll be going back there in July.

I don't know of anyone else in the area that does research. There is a fellow in Holmes County, but I get a letters from his clients asking for help. For example, a friend of mine wrote for research last March and sent $25.00. She has written twice and tried to call, but still has not heard from him. I won't recommend him, obviously. There is a lady in Muskingum county that is very good, Teresa Kleiber. There is no one in the five counties that I do, except for me. At least that I know of.

I have no had no new requests for Iler. Who I have on file is . . . . .

Dear Mr. Peadon,

It looks like your answer is not to be found in Clermont County. I would have thought that I would have come across the family at least one other time in the records available, but it is like they just disappeared.

I checked the CLERMONT CO. DEATH INDEX 1956-1908 and found nothing. Of course, it was not a law to record the deaths until after 1908 so it could have been just missed. The John & Mary that do appear in the Death index would have made them born way before the ones on the 1880 census. The I stands for Infirmary - meaning that John died in the "Poor House". See A

I checked the card file at Probate which covers the area from 1897 to ca 1950 and found nothing for John or Mary. If their deaths were not recorded there is a chance that a cemetery record may exist. I found nothing in MONUMENT INSCRIPTIONS PRIOR TO 1900 IN CLERMONT COUNTY. I did find a Mary born 1809 but that is too early.

There was nothing in HISTORY OF CLERMONT COUNTY 1880 or 1980.

There was nothing in the Wills index 1851-1900.

There was nothing in CLERMONT & BROWN CO. HIST 1913.

Nothing in T. P. WHITE FUNERAL HOME INDEX 1889-1925.

There isn't even a manuscript or paper on Washington Twp. or Neville except a small paper called INDEX TO ACCOUNT BOOK IN WASHINGTON TWP. 1816-1819 and the only Iler mentioned is a George. It tells nothing except that he traded there during those years.

There is nothing in the 8 Vol. of Bible records collected by the Society.

? The 1900 census has no index, however I did check the residents of Neville, one by one, but nothing showed up. The 1870 census listed a John Iler in Williamsburg Twp. #228 but I didn't see much point. It wouldn't tell us anything more than the 1880 census. I will send you a copy if you want it.

511311 I checked the all the back issues of the Soc. newsletters from 1978-1993 and found George mentioned - see Washington Account book above. I also found in Vol 54 pg 42 a birth record for Mary Iler b 4 May 1856 to Leander Iler & Juda E Kendel.

233

The Society's Surname file lists 2 cards or 2 people doing research on the Iler name. Note the cards were given to the Soc. in 1980 and 83. Feel free to write to these people if you think it will help. The Inactive Surname file has one piece of correspondence on Iler back in 1975. In Mr. Behymer's letter he mentions Vesper LERMONT Co, Cem. in Washington Twp. That is the record I found in the MON. CEM. INSC. bk and there are just 4 Iler's: Mary b 1809 d 1885, Charles S b 1929 d 1889, J. E. Iler b 1857 d 1905 and Catherine b 1837 d 1913. There just isn't enough here to make any connections. See B & C

1809

There are a few newspaper indexes I could check but at this point I think pretty much everything, that is standard, has been exhausted. If you have any specific records you would want searched just ask.

Sincerely,

Barb

Dear Mr. Behymer,

RALPH BEHYMER COLLECTION

At the end of September I wrote to you in regards to do doing some research for me. I have decided to take you up your offer to do a typed report on your findings at the Clermont County Court House for $5.00 on one individual. I am interested in the records of George Washington Iler who was married to a Hampton. George Washington Iler, his wife and daughter died in May 1833 leaving a nine month old baby boy Leander Iler. Leander seems to have grown up in Clermont Co. as he enlisted in the Civil War there and his children were born there. In your letter of September 24, 1975 to me regarding your rates, etc. you mentioned a George Iler in your History of Clermont County that was a property onwer in Washington Township, Clermont County in 1826 that seems as likely a location as I can come up with for a village or twonship where George Washington Iler might have lived. I think that would be a good place to start.

Marta Metcalf

Dear Mrs Metcalf:

Dear Mrs Metcalf:

I hope you don't think that I have forgotten you. No, I am only tryin to recover from the lethargy one usually falls into after the mad rush of the Christmas holidays.

I hope you don't think that I've forgotten you. No, I just trying to snap out of a lethargy

S113 At the Court House in Bk. 2, pages 257-8, I find marriage record of George Iler to Elizabeth Hampton on December 15 1828 by Nathan Keyt J.P.

But I was unable to find anything that would pinpoint what part of Clermont County that they resided in....no land record that he could be positively identified with.

S11 I find a George Iler, died May 31 1851, age 89 yrs, with wife Tobitha who died March 11 1844 age 85 yr, who were buried in what is called the Old Bethel Cemetery in Tate Twp.

Quite a few Ilers are buries in Vesper Cemetery at Neville, which is in Washington Twp.

S1131/* In Mar Rec Bk. 7, page 16-17, I find: Leander Iler 23 to Judy C. Kindle 18 on June 7 1855 by T.J. Morris J.P.

This would put the death of his parents in 1832 or 1833, but I was unable to find any record of anyone being appointed his guardian.

If you wrote for the service record of Leander, that would show where his residence was.

When we are searching for records of parents of one whose entire family was wiped out, it seems almost impossible that none can be found, but we must remember that families were more closely knit then than now, and in a catastrophe like Leander's, I'm sure that some relative found it quite natural to accept him as one of the family. My mother died when I was but 19 months of age and my grandmother Behymer raised me to manhood without benefit of legal guardianship. I did not return to my father even when he married again.

It is regrettable that it was not until 1850 that the census gave the names of each individual in a family. They were listed as males or females : under 5 yr; bet 5 and 10 yr; 10-15, etc;

I regret that more could not be found, and if you find any further clue, and will let me know, I will see what can be found.

Sincerely Ralph Behymer

January 4, 1907

Our little city was startled by the announcement of the demise of Ezra Iler, last Friday afternoon, as but a few hours previous he was the embodiment of healthfulness, jollity and good cheer.

The day previous he had dug some parsnips in his garden and with his genial and accustomed good nature had joked with his friends and relatives about the large quantity of parsnips which he had obtained.

Mrs. Iler cooked some of the parsnips for dinner, and each member of the family partook of them, but felt no ill effects of them. Mr. Iler accompanied by James Parmalee, on Friday morning, went to the woods to secure some sassafras roots. Shortly after arriving home Mr. Iler complained of feeling ill, and Dr. J. W. Morr was summoned. The stomach pump was used and some of the undigested food which had been eaten the day previous was removed. Dr. J. W. Hays was afterwards called in consultation with Dr. Morr but their efforts were unavailing, and he died at 2 o'clock p. m. The food had lain undigested in his stomach and had produced poison.

Mr. Iler was a hard working man, of recent years being engaged in working at the mason trade. He was an excellent citizen, and was held in the highest esteem and respect. We extend our sincere sympathy to the grief stricken wife and children, and commendeth them to the Heavenly Father, who doeth all things well. The following obituary was handed us by Rev. Mohler.

Ezra G. Iler, the son of Joshua and Mariah Iler, was born in Preble county, October 15, 1859. When about twenty-one years of age he came with his parents to Van Wert county, Ohio, where they remained about five or six years. From thence they came to Noble county, Indiana. Ezra with his father and brothers ran a threshing outfit, and because of that he became widely acquainted. There was scarcely a farmer in the southpart of this county with which he was not familiarly acquainted, and being of such a genial disposition everybody loved his company.

Mr. Iler's father died [illegible] and of a once large family of nine children but two brothers, one sister and his mother remain in this life.

He married Mary Catharine Simmons, May 19, 1892, and resided near Ormas. Their daughter, Maude, was born there, as was also a son who died in infancy. While residing there Mr. Iler united with the Free will Baptist church.

About six years ago Mr. Iler with his family came to Albion. Since residing here a daughter, Margaret, was born to them. Mr. Iler united with the Lutheran church about five ago. He was elected a member of the church council four years ago and at the time of his demise was secretary of that body. He was a most faithful man to his church. He was constantly in his place. His presence and help will be greatly missed.

He was always of robust health, genial and happy. It was a pleasure to be with him. On the morning of his death he was joking and happy, apparently in the best of health. At 10:30 a. m. he complained of a severe pain in his head, he told his wife he would go and lay down, then almost immediately he said he believed he he had a stroke of apoplexy, that his tongue was getting so that he could not talk. These were the last words he spoke. Physicians were hastily summoned, who did all in their power to restore him, but he rapidly sank and expired within three and one-half hours from the time he was taken ill. He died January 4, 1907, aged forty-seven years, two months and nineteen days. He leaves a widow and two orphans.

Great sympathy is manifest toward the bereaved. The funeral service Sunday, 2 p. m. at the Lutheran church was a multitude of weeping friends. The service was impressive throughout. The draped bier, the tears, the songs, all spoke eloquently of regard. The sermon was preached by the pastor, Rev. M. R. Mohler from Matt. 24:44. Interment in the Albion cemetery in a lot sloping toward the east, in full view from the home of the bereaved widow and orphans.

CARD OF THANKS

We sincerly appreciate the sympathy shown us in our sad hour of bereavement and thank you one and all for the interest manifest toward

RAF Breach Vital Canal on Western Front in a Double Blow.

London, Nov. 28.—(U.P.)—A great sky fleet of 750 or more British heavy bombers lashed at two Rhineland railroad centers and [illegible] German armies of the west last night, while a strong diversionary force of Mosquito raiders dropped scores of two-ton blockbusters on Berlin.

At the same time, a belated announcement revealed that two picked squadrons of RAF heavies breached the vital Mittelland and Dortmund-Ems canals last night in a daring double blow that partially crippled the German system of military communications at a critical moment in the western campaign.

Will Peadon
6113 S. McNutt Ave.
Ashtabula, Ohio 44004

Dear Mr. Peadon,

I am very sorry to report that I have been unable to find any birth records for your Iler ancestors. I did, however, find several land transactions between Samuel Iler and John Iler (including one naming John's wife as Catherine) between 1842 and 1846. They do suggest that Samuel was perhaps a brother or some other relative, and Samuel moved to Tuscarawas Co. Ohio between those two dates. I'll include all this on a separate sheet. I'll also list a few older marriage records on the off chance that perhaps your Iler moved here on the recommendation of other Ilers who were already here.

I did check alternate spellings. I examined all the church records I could find both in the Western MD Room at the Washington Co. Library and at the Washington Co. Historical Society Library. I also checked both places for an index of people searching for the name of Iler, but no luck. We have a few books on church records in Lancaster, PA and other areas nearby in PA, but they were all much earlier. They did not show up in the Co. Histories, and the newspapers of that date are not indexed.

It certainly looks from the land records that they came here not long before 1842 and left in 1846 to join Samuel in Ohio.

I'm sorry I wasn't able to be of more help. Have you checked Lancaster for a will for John's father or his birth records? If you have any questions or can think of another line to pursue, please let me know. Thank you for your check. Good luck.

Sincerely,

Lea Kersting

Catherine made her mark.

All these transaction are for the same property. I wonder if Ruann might be the Ruanna who married Kitzmiller in 1832 - a possible second marriage? I couldn't find a record of it, though.

Dear Mr. Peadon,

I'm afraid I have found more Iler/Eiler/Eylers than either of us anticipated. There were many,many of them in Frederick Co. and many in Holdcraft's book on/Fred.Co. cemetery records, the latter of which I did not include. There are several pages which I could copy for you if desired. I found 7507 Mary Eyler Buhrman's death, but she turned out to be daughter of 7490 Adam & 7491 Mary Eyler, wife of Rev. Abraham Buhrman and died 1850. I starred hers and Ruanna's records. Ruanna, wife of Wm. Wolford, died 1860, age 46, but no mention of parents.

The Grace Evang. Luth. Ch. in Frederick had so many Ilers listed I hesitated to send them all since they are in Frederick. Washington Co. separated from Fred. Co. in 1776, by the way. I tried to group the families & their children together to make it easier for you. I did notice that Eiler seems to be the earliest spelling, followed by Eyler, and later by Iler. Several are spelled two different ways.

I hope some of these will relate to your family. I did note the exact dates on most of these, but only sent you the years in many cases, due to time restrictions. If you need any exact dates let me know.

I will charge you $20.00 for 2 hours work.

Sincerely,

Lea Kersting

Jefferson County. He was there married on Sunday, April 30, 1848, by the Rev. George S. Holmes, pastor of the M. E. Church, to Anna V. Johnston, of Steubenville. He then went to Pomeroy, Meigs Co., Ohio, and there located for practice. Soon after, he returned to visit friends at Steubenville, was taken sick, and suffered an almost fatal attack of typhoid fever. On September 4, 1848, he located on a farm in Perry Township, this county, assumed management of the same, and practiced till 1866. Then retiring from active life, he removed to New Philadelphia, where he has since resided. He owns 271 acres of land in Perry Township, and some valuable city property. Was formerly an Abolitionist, and is now a conservative Republican. Was formerly and is now a member of New Philadelphia Board of Education; also of Stillwater Medical Society. He is the parent of seven children—six daughters and one son, six of whom are living.

JOSHUA P. GRIMM, livery, New Philadelphia, was born in this city April 22, 1839. His father, Solomon Grimm, emigrated when nine years of age, about 1818, with his parents, John and Margaret Grimm, from Washington County, Penn., to a farm in Old Town Valley. Solomon was one of seven children, five boys and two girls, four of whom are living. He was reared on the farm, acquired the blacksmith's trade, clerked, was engaged in staging for many years, and later has followed the livery business. He married Mary Iler, by whom he had nine children, six of whom survive, three in this county, two in Pittsburgh, Penn., and one in Lorain, Ohio. Joshua P. was reared in New Philadelphia, attended school in the old market house, kept a livery in Uhrichsville awhile, and has followed various avocations. He was with his father in the livery business, but four years ago he established a business for himself and has since met with fine success. He enlisted, August 8, 1862, in Company K, Ninety-eighth Ohio Volunteer Infantry, serving five months. He was wounded and honorably discharged. In May, 1864, he entered the field again, in the One Hundred and Sixty-first, and served four months. He is a member of Andrew Crawford Post, G. A. R. In November, 1870, he was married to Elizabeth Goodwin, a native of Little York, Jefferson County, Ohio, and of Quaker descent. Of their two children, Frank B. is living.

CHARLES F. GRINNELL, weighmaster Brock Hill Mine, Pike Run, was born in Tioga County, Penn., March 22, 1853. His father, Edward Grinnell, was also a native of the Keystone State, and was engaged in the lumber business. He went to Kansas about three years ago. He married Catherine Kimball, who died in 1867. She was the mother of seven children, our subject the only one in this county; one brother, James, is Superintendent of the Garfield and Camp Creek coal mines of Stark County, Ohio. Charles F. was raised in his native State, and in early life assisted his father in the lumber business. In 1873, he came to Pike Run, and commenced work "on the outside" of Mine No. 1. He then accepted position of weighmaster; held that two years, then went to Camp Creek Shaft, Stark County, Ohio, but a year later resumed present position, which he has since held. Mr. Grinnell is Chancellor Commander of La Belle Lodge, No. 160, K. of P., of Barnhill; member of the Plains Methodist Episcopal Church, and Superintendent of its Sunday school. He was married, January 4, 1876, to Ellen, daughter of John McClelland. They had three children—May, Lulu and Ollie. Wife died February 1, 1881, and Mr. Grinnell was again married, August 28, 1882, to Jane McClelland, a sister of his first wife. Mrs. Grinnell is also a member of the Plains Church. Mr. Grinnell is a Republican in politics, and has served as Director of School District No. 4, of Goshen Township.

ADOLPH HAFENBRAK, brewer, residing at Blake's Mills, P. O. New Philadelphia, was born August 14, 1846, in Wurtemberg, Germany, where he obtained his education and learned his trade. In 1871, he came to America, and after staying eight months in Pittsburgh, Penn., went to Cleveland, Ohio, where he resided five years. Here he was united in marriage, May 23, 1876, with Mrs. Julia Graab, also a native of Wurtemberg. She had four children by her former marriage—George, Henry, Anna and Matilda. By her union with Mr. Hafenbrak 1861. The present membership is about twenty. Rev. Weaver, the pastor, preaches also at Mineral City, Pleasant Valley (Sandy Township) and New Cumberland.

In the western part of the township, near the north line of Section 14, stands the Bisel, or "Furnace United Brethren Church." It is the first and only church structure of the society, and was built about 1850. A class had been organized a few years before that date, and worshiped at private houses. The present membership is small.

St. Matthew's Evangelical Lutheran Church, located in the northwest corner of Section 19, was built in 1837, and repaired and enlarged in 1872 or 1873 at a cost of $1,300. It is a frame building, and the lot upon which it is located was donated to the congregation by Silas Williams. The first minister was Rev. Emanuel Greenwold, of New Philadelphia, who held services in the cabin and barn of Adam Ranesberger, an early member, at the cabin of Samuel Waltz, another early member, and elsewhere till the church was built. Other early Lutherans of this society were William Stevens and John and David Weaver. The present church membership is about forty. This church is connected with the Dover charge and Rev. H. H. Hall is the present minister.

Mount Zion and Tuscarawas Valley German Baptist, or Dunkard, Church, situated on the road, a short distance south of the Lutheran Church, was built in 1870, at a cost of about $4,000. At that time the members who worshiped here were connected with the Stark County and Tuscarawas Church, and so continued until about 1877, when the Mount Zion and Tuscarawas Valley Church was organized. A branch meeting house is in New Philadelphia. Early preaching was held in Fairfield Township at dwelling houses. Rev. George V. Kollar has preached here for twenty-three years. Besides him at present Revs. Peter Kollar and Edward Loomis minister to this congregation, the numerical strength of which is about fifty.

The village of Fairfield was laid out by Samuel and Worthington Slutts in 1854, and is located in the northwest quarter of Section 4. The original plat contained thirty lots. Broadway, Fair and Conotton were the streets. It is situated on the line of the Tuscarawas branch of the Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad, but has never attained a larger size than a few houses and a store. The station and post office is now called Zoar Station. The store here is the the property of the Zoar society, and has been operated since 1863 by Charles H. Ehlers. Mr. Ehlers has also been Postmaster since 1867.

About a fourth mile farther north, near the junction of the Lake Erie & Wheeling and the Valley Railroads with the Tuscarawas branch, and on the line between Fairfield and Sandy Townships, the Separatists of Zoar in October, 1882, laid off a town of twenty-eight lots, and named it Valley City. An addition of thirteen lots in Sandy Township was made in March, 1883. A small grocery, several houses and a commodious depot and eating house compose the infant village.

Savana was the title of a town plat which was surveyed by Thomas King, surveyor, for Edward Ogden, David McConnell and Israel S. Lappin, the proprietors, June 12, 1834. It was located west of the river near the Ohio Canal. The plat contained thirty-nine lots, regularly and systematically laid out, with streets and alleys intervening, but it came to naught.

In the southern part of Fairfield, near the northern line of School Lot 17, in former days was a brisk little settlement called Mount Tabor. Samuel C. Wright first settled here in 1830. The following year, Christian Brown built a cabin, and in a few years the place contained a store, kept by Mr. Dempster, a grocery, a schoolhouse, a post office and a half dozen or more dwelling victims, and for a time it seemed as if all must perish. The doors of the storeroom could not be opened, for the fallen floor, which hung by its sides above, securely barred it. The doors were finally broken down by men from the outside, and by great effort the throng was released, and the flames extinguished, but not until ten had received their death wounds from the devouring element, and many more severely burned. There was scarcely a house in the village which did not have a struggling sufferer extricated from that terrible trap. Miss Mary Neff was instantly killed, and the following died from injuries received: Mrs. Catharine Yoder and her son, Melta Yoder; Miss Annie Orin, Mrs. Allen Goeler, Frederick Schlarb, the village clothier; Frederick Weimer, a blacksmith; George Froelick, farmer; Miss Amanda Troyer and Miss Annie Graff.

CHAPTER XVII.

UNION TOWNSHIP.

BOUNDARIES—SURFACE—ORGANIZATION—MAGISTRATES—SETTLEMENT—BLACK HORSE TAVERN—THE REIGN OF WHISKY—MILLS—SCHOOLS—CHURCHES—ROCKFORD.

UNION TOWNSHIP lies in the eastern part of Tuscarawas County. It is bounded on the north by Warren Township, on the west by Goshen and Mill, on the south by Mill, and on the east by Carroll and Harrison Counties. Most of its territory lies in Township 14, Range 7, of which it includes the entire western half, or eighteen sections, except a quarter section in the southwestern corner, which was annexed to Mill. West of this there is also in Union Township a small fraction of the first quarter of Township 7, Range 1, known as the Spencer tract, sixteen 100-acre lots in the fourth quarter of Township 8, Range 1, and north of it a section of Congress land.

The physical features of Union are generally rugged. Little Stillwater Creek crosses the southern end of the township from east to west, and a fertile little valley skirts the stream on either side. Panther and Irish runs flow southward and enter Little Stillwater. They take their origin in deep ravines which slowly broaden, and toward the mouth of the streams form beautiful vales between ridges of steep hills. Successive ranges of hills, lofty and in some places steep, make up the main surface of the townships. They were covered in pioneer days with a heavy growth of timber, of which oak, hickory and chestnut were the prevailing types. The soil is of sandy consistence. Coal is imbedded beneath in veins of four or five feet thickness, and is mined only for home consumption, except near the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati & St. Louis Railroad, which crosses the southern extremity of the township. Here the facilities for exportation have led to the development of several mines.

In consequence of the formation of Carroll County, the townships along the eastern side of Tuscarawas were re-shaped March 6, 1833, and Union and Mill organized, the former with the following boundaries: Beginning at the northeast corner of Section 24, Township 14, Range 7, at the Carroll County line; thence west on the south line of Warren Township four miles to the northwest corner of the southwest quarter of Section 10, Township 8, Range 1; thence south three and one-half miles to Township 7; thence east one-half mile to the southwest corner of Lot 1, Township 8, Range 1; thence south two and one-half miles; thence east three and one-half miles to the southeast corner of Section 19, Township 14, Range 7, on the Harrison County line; thence north to the place of beginning. The outlines of Union have since been slightly changed. Its territory was formerly a part of One Leg Township. For five years, the elections were held at the house of George Rutledge. The voting place was then changed to the residence of William Brock, where it has since remained. At the first election, about forty-two votes were cast.

The following is a list of the township magistrates: James Boyd, 1833: James Gray, 1833; Thomas L. Milligan, 1836; Abraham Lemasters, 1836: Thomas L. Milligan, 1839; Abraham Lemasters, 1839; Robert McElravy, 1842; Abraham Lamthers, 1842; Cyrus C. Carroll, 1845; Robert McElravy, 1845; Robert McElravy, 1848; Cyrus C. Carroll, 1848; John W. The present population of Union Township is largely Irish in nationality, Methodist in religion, and Republican politically. They are not the descendants of the earliest pioneers, but came and entered lands after the first settlers had become domiciled in the little valleys through the township. The white men who first peopled this region were mostly rough backwoodsmen, who had been reared in the frontier settlements of Pennsylvania, Maryland and Virginia, and who advanced on the foremost wave of civilization and dotted the unbroken wilderness with its first humble cabins. They were a boisterous, restless class of men, who had no scruples to shoot deer and to fish on Sunday, or to take deep potations from the spirits everywhere distilled throughout the Western country, yet they possessed the integrity and virtues of their race and generation. Many of them did not own the soil they occupied, and as fast as bona fide proprietors arrived they yielded possession and built anew in a more unsettled locality. The valley of Stillwater was the portion of the township that was first settled, and from 1808 to 1812 the primitive pioneers located here. Among the earliest were John McPherson, William McCleary, David Wagoner, James Vanater, George Kail, Jacob Creager, Solomon Arnold and James Boyd.

John McPherson did not remain in the township long, but emigrated farther west. His cabin stood near the bank of Little Stillwater, on the south side, and during freshets was inundated by the floods. Once the creek rose so rapidly that he rescued his family with difficulty from their watery home. His son had taken refuge in the chimney, but emerged at its top and reached the boat in safety. William McCleary entered the southwest quarter of Section 20 and occupied it for many years. He then went West and subsequently became wealthy. David Wagoner entered the southeast quarter of Section 19. James Vanater was his son-in-law and by occupation a farmer. For a while, Vanater kept a tavern at Rockford; he then removed to the western part of the State. George Kail entered the northwest quarter of Section 20. He remained a life-long resident on a portion of it, and his family have long since gone beyond the limits of the township. Jacob Creager was of German birth. He purchased a portion of the Kail farm and remained there till his death, which overtook him in old age. James Boyd was born in County Tyrone, Ireland, and was a pioneer of Union Township widely known as the host of the Black Horse tavern. He purchased the southwest quarter of Section 26, and later in life removed to Allen County.

Other early settlers were Solomon Delong, Jesse Foster, James Gray, Moses Hoagland, William Iler, Philip Knight, John, Michael and Presly Trumbo and Milver Willis. √ 002 The Delongs were among the earliest settlers. Solomon entered the southeast quarter of Section 26 and was well advanced in life when he entered the township. John Delong was a famous hunter, and an intimate associate of Joseph Huff, the border ranger of Prairie Township. Jesse Delong lived to be one of the oldest men of Tuscarawas County. He died recently a centennarian. He came to Union Township from Virginia, about 1809, was married in 1812, and thenceforth remained a constant resident of the township. Like many other pioneers, his religion was superstition. He was a firm believer in signs, omens and witchcraft, and by his own statement had many a tussle with witches in the shape of cats, from which he was delivered uninjured through prayer to the Lord. He was not a member of any church, but was always regular in his habits. Jesse Foster entered the northeast quarter of Section 31, and died prior to 1820. James Gray purchased and occupied the southwest quarter of Section 25, entered by Benjamin Wagoner. Mr. Gray afterward removed to the western part of Ohio. Moses Hoagland entered and settled on the northwest quarter of Section 31. He was an early Justice of the Peace for One Leg Township, and afterward removed to other regions. William Iler was the possessor and occupant of ninety-one acres off the northwest and southwest quarters of Section 19, which were entered by James Vanater and John Wagoner, respectively. Philip Knight was a blacksmith and a bell-maker, addicted to the popular vice of that day—a fondness for the cup that cheers. He entered and settled on the northeast quarter of Section 19. John, Michael and Presly Trumbo owned and occupied, respectively, the northwest, the southwest and the northeast quarters of Section 25. Milver Willis did not remain long in the township. He owned sixty acres in the northwest quarter of Section 31.

Nathan Leggett was the first settler in the northern part of Union. He came from Pennsylvania in April, 1814, and settled on the farm now owned by John Leggett, where he lived till his death, an earnest Methodist, leaving a large family. James A. Roby was the second pioneer of this vicinity, coming to the northeast quarter of Section 30 from Charles County, Md., in May, 1814. His family and household effects he brought in a cart drawn by three horses. For a short time he tarried in Leesburg, until he could make a small clearing and erect a cabin. Mr. Roby remained thenceforth a resident of the township, and died at the age of eighty-four years. His son Hanson, one of four children, is still a citizen of the township, and has attained the ripe age of eighty-three years. Soon after the arrival of Mr. Roby, William True came from Delaware and settled on the farm now owned by John True. He was a farmer, and died on the home place at an advanced age.

Among other comparatively early settlers of Union were George Graham, John Rule, William Rutledge, Reese Baldwin, Mark Herron, Joshua Leggett, Matthew Evans, A. McCullough, Thomas Milligan and Luke Quinn.

The Black Horse tavern was built in 1819 by James Boyd on the southwest quarter of Section 26, at the junction of the two roads. It was a noted resort in early days, and an important stopping place on the Cadiz & New Philadelphia road. When wheat was hauled by teams from Harrison County to the Ohio Canal, it was a regular stopping place, and did a rushing business. A dozen wagons standing in the yard was a very common sight. After Mr. Boyd, Nicholas Swenigen, Mr. Kent and Joseph Thompson were proprietors of the house. It was closed to the public years ago.

Whisky was manufactured at several little stills in the township, as it was everywhere else throughout the West in those days, and the evils resulting from its use became so marked that a firm stand was taken by some settlers against it. At the first election in the township for Justices, James Boyd and James Gray, the two tavern-keepers were candidates against George Graham and John Iler, members of the Methodist Church. The inn-keepers opened a keg of "free whisky," and by this means carried the election in their favor. The temperance element soon after rallied and obtained control, and have held it ever since. The alcoholic beverage was always an important factor at barn raisings and other public assemblages, until Joshua Leggett, Thomas Milligan, William Rutledge, Reese Baldwin and others put forth determined efforts against it and finally abolished it.

John Maxill built a little mill on Stillwater, which would grind corn about as fast as a yoke of oxen could eat it. He was a squatter, and also operated a distillery. The Langdon Mill, as it is called, was built as early as 1835 in the southeast corner of the township. For some time it was the only mill within a radius of many miles.

Most of the earliest settlers had scarcely the rudiments of education themselves, and devoted little attention or expense to the instruction of their children. The first school is said to have been taught by a Mr. Russell in a log house about three miles east of Uhrichsville. John Pevard gave the first instruction in the northern part of the township. He was a cripple, and gave private lessons at his home in the eastern part of Section 30 about 1824. Thomas Walker was the first teacher of a regularly kept school near Rockford.

The township contains three Methodist Episcopal and one Christian or Disciple Church. Rockford Methodist Church is a neat frame building, which was erected about twenty years ago. It stands in the eastern part of Section 36. The class was organized at a private house, and for some time the meetings were held at the cabins of Mark Herron and John Irvin. Among the early members were Samuel Carnes, Venassa Carnes, Abel Lemasters and wife, John Lemasters, John Irvin, Mark Herron, Rees Baldwin, Hanson W. Roby and wife, Nathan Leggett, John Belch and Joseph Belch. A log church was the first house of worship, occupying the site of the present building. The lot was donated by Alexander Gray. Rev. William M. Dickerson is the present minister.

Wesley Chapel is situated near the center of the township, on the northwest quarter of Section 27, the farm of William Rutledge. The society was organized in 1830, at the residence of George Graham. For four years, services were conducted at private houses, and in 1834 a log church, 30x40 feet, was built and occupied, with occasional repairs, until 1880, when a frame edifice was reared upon the same lot. It is 35x40 feet in size, and cost about $1,500. The present membership is thirty, and Rev. McAllister is pastor. The old church was furnished in primitive style, including slab seats. The original class included George Graham, John Graham and wife, George Rutledge and wife, William Rutledge and wife, John Rule and wife, Mrs. Ann Brock, Matthew Evans and wife, and several others.

About forty-five years ago, Rev. Henger, a Disciple or Christian minister, visited the township and held a series of revival meetings, at which many conversions were reported. As a result, a log church was built about 1840, on the northwest quarter of Section 20. George Kail and wife, William Middleton and wife, Henry Kreager and wife, Reuben Kail and wife, and John Kreager and wife were members. For a few years the society prospered, but removals and deaths led to its extinguishment, and about 1850 the building was sold to a new Methodist class, which worshiped for a few years in the old log struct-

FAIRFIELD TOWNSHIP.

CHARLES H. EHLERS, merchant, Postmaster, express agent and agent of the C. & P. Railroad, Zoar Station, was born March 24, 1839, at Zoar. He is the son of William G. and Catharine Ehlers, natives of Germany, who emigrated to America and became members of the Society of Separatists of Zoar. Our subject was raised here and was married, in November, 1861, to Jacobina Ackermann, also a member of the society. Seven children have been born to them—Catharine, Louisa, William, Carolina, Charles, Alfred and Jacob. Mr. Ehlers took charge of the branch store of the society at Zoar Station in 1862, and was appointed railroad agent the same year. In 1863, he received the appointment of Postmaster. He is Republican in politics, and one of the leading business men of the Zoar Society.

LEWIS GECKELER, farmer and stock-raiser, P. O. Zoar Station, was born in the kingdom of Wurtemberg, Germany, December 22, 1828. He emigrated to America in 1850, and settled in Tuscarawas County. Three years later, he married Ann Grove, a native of this county. Of their eleven children, ten are living—William, John G., Lewis, Emma, Frederick, Louisa, George, Margaret A., Charles and Henry. Mrs. Geckeler died April 8, 1872. She had been a member of the Lutheran Church and a good wife and kind mother. For his second wife, Mr. Geckeler married her sister, Emeline Grove. One child—Mary Malvina—has been born to them. Mr. Geckeler has been industrious and successful in life, as his fine farm of 240 acres amply proves. Its value is enhanced by a splendid residence and other good buildings upon it. He also owns a valuable farm of 146 acres in Stark County. Mr. Geckeler takes great interest in raising fine stock, and has many domestic animals of valuable breeds upon the premises. He is a Democrat and has served his township as Trustee and Treasurer, and is a member of the Lutheran Church. Fairfield Township has no more upright citizen nor more reliable business man than Lewis Geckeler.

HUGH KELLY, farmer and proprietor of iron mine, P. O. New Philadelphia, was born March 6, 1815, in St. John, New Brunswick, the second child of a family of ten children. His mother, Jerusha Kelly, was accidentally drowned in the Bay of Fundy in 1835. His father, James More Kelly, was a merchant, ship-builder, lumber dealer and proprietor of vessels plying on the Atlantic. Hugh was united in marriage, December 4, 1835, with Rosanne Steeves, also a native of the province. They emigrated to Ohio in 1836, and after living for six years in Harrison County came to this county and township. Ten children have been born unto them—Catharine, wife of John Minnis; Margaret, wife of Andrew Van Buskirk, of Allen County; Mary, widow of Albert Boyd; William, of Lockport; James, who was killed while in service in 1865; Henry, deceased, and John, Ellen, Thomas and Harvey, at home. Mr. Kelly's farm is underlaid with a vein of blackband iron ore. He has opened a mine and operated it profitably for several years. He is a Republican; has held various township offices, and is esteemed an upright, reliable and influential citizen. Himself and wife are members of the German Baptist Church.

WILLIAM IRA KENNEDY, farmer, P. O. New Cumberland, was born November 5, 1845, in Warren Township, this county, and is a son of William

Condition of Submission [illegible] North Pole Proofs.

Washington, Mar. 5.—Robert E. Peary, through friends, has declined to submit his North Pole discovery proofs to the house committee on naval affairs unless guarantees are given by the committee that nothing of this data shall be made public. The committee will not accept the condition. Mr. Peary probably will not receive recognition by congress for his discovery as a consequence.

The sub-committee of the committee on naval affairs having in charge the bills carrying reward and recognition of Peary had before it Prof. O. H. Tittman of the hydrographic office and Representative Alexander of New York, an old college friend of Peary. Prof. Tittman was one of the committee of National Geographic society who passed on the Peary proofs. He told the committee he could not give up any of the proofs as Mr. Peary had decided they should not be made public until he had completed his book on the Arctic trip and the North Pole discovery.

Believed Madriz Will Have to Pay Indemnities Incurred by Zelaya and Himself.

Washington, Mar. 5.—The United States government has expended on the Nicaraguan revolution, including the banishment of Zelaya, more than a half million of money.

While the state department is not informed officially of the collapse of the Estrada revolution, some officials think that Madriz [illegible]

Rockefeller, Jr. The purpose of the foundation is to promote well being, advance civilization, prevent and relieve suffering and aid human progress. The oil king's great wealth is to be divided into three parts. The first and largest part is to be for charity and will be administered by the Rockefeller foundation. The second is the general education fund and the third and smallest part is to be set aside for the Rockefeller family.

felt in the crisis which has just passed. Prompt and effective action at the right time saved the day. As a result of the stringent measures taken by the authorities the danger of epidemic, following the conditions created by the flood, has to a great extent disappeared.

Not daunted by the death threatening waters, arrangements for the Mi-Careme (or Mid-Lent) festivities, have gone on. To make up for the customary annual Mardi-Gras celebration, which, under the circumstances resulting from the floods it was decided best to postpone, Parisians will enter into the carnival spirit with even greater zest than ever.

The feature of the street procession, which will be more than one mile in length, will be the large number of floats, that of the "Queen of Queens," being the most important and attractive. Preceded by horsemen carrying banners and emblems, followed by similarly decorated cars in which will be seated a "queen" fo each province in France attended by maids of honor in picturesque costumes, the "Queen of Queens" wil proceed to the residence of Presiden Fallieres, who will present her wit the customary gift—often a gol bracelet—amid the cheers of th crowd.

These "queens" are elected by vote from among the artisan classe Many of them are "queens" of th markets where they are employe The confetti merchants will not d as large a business as usual becau of the order issued by the authoriti limiting the amount of confetti throwing, through fear of clogging up sewers and street openings.

The center of the fun, particular the "battle of confetti," is general near the Cafe de la Paix. It is sa that many Americans intend "maki [illegible]" at that point on th [illegible]

FIRST SPRING SIGNS SEEN IN LORAIN TODAY

Besides This Warm Weather Sign, Boys Are Again Playing Marbles And "Uncle" Won't Take Heavy Coats Any More.

If the signs are true, spring has surely come. It needs now but the hand-organ and street piano man or the bill poster for the annual circus to "cinch" the season.

Robins were seen here today. W. R. Rutledge, the well known railway man, reports that this morning he saw several of these heralds of spring at his home at 1862 Reid avenue. Mr. Rutledge was delighted and spent considerable time listening to the sweet notes of the birds.

Yesterday a large flock of crows created quite a disturbance in the woods west of the city opposite Henry King's farm. They cawed and cawed in an apparently delightful fashion and pedestrians along West Erie avenue took this for a sure indication that spring has really come.

Other sure signs are the groups of boys playing marbles everywhere about the city and the refusal of the pawnbrokers to accept heavy overcoats in exchange for the familiar green strip of pasteboard.

MRS. H.W. ADAMS IS DEAD AFTER A LONG ILLNESS

N0015

Prominent Worker in W. C. T. U. And First Methodist Church Circles, Passes Away of Bright's Disease.

Mrs. H. W. Adams passed away at 8 o'clock last evening at her home at 1118 Fifth street after a long illness. Death was due to Bright's Disease. The deceased had been ailing for several years, but her condition had not been serious until about a year ago. For several days past she had been at the point of death and her demise was momentarily expected.

The deceased was born in Canal Dover, O., but until a few years ago she resided at East Liverpool, O. About four years ago Mr. and Mrs. Adams took up their residence in this city. Mrs. Adams was a member of the First Methodist church and was until illness prevented active in the work of the Missionary Society and the W. C. T. U. She is survived by her husband and five children, Charles, of Warren, O., George, of Michigan, William, Harold and Nina, of this city.

Arrangements for the funeral services have not been completed, but will be announced tomorrow.

:: WASHINGTON LETTER ::

By Roderick Clifford.

Washington, March 4.—It pays to have some knowledge of parliamentary law and to know how to apply it to the rules of the House. There is no better example of this than in the person of Representative Marlin E. Olmsted of Pennsylvania. The Keystone statesman, perhaps to a greater extent than any other member of the House, is called upon by Speaker Cannon to preside over the committee of the whole when the large supply bills are up for consideration. This is an honor that any member may covet and many of the older members are just a little bit jealous of the favor shown Mr. Olmsted by "Uncle Joe," whose successor he may be if the Republicans retain control of the next House.

Some few years ago—Mr. Olmstead is now serving his seventh continuous term—the Pennsylvania statesman drew up a privileged resolution, but to put it in the proper shape required several days of study. He hunted up precedents, delved into the rules, and after much labor found what he wanted. He went into the speaker's room with his resolutions and informed "Uncle Joe" that he would offer the resolutions in the House the next day.

Before the House met next day the speaker sent for Mr. Olmstead and asked where he had studied parliamentary law and where he obtained his precedents for the resolutions. "I got it by study," was the reply.

From that day Mr. Olmstead was called to the chair by the speaker, and from the first he proved a success as a presiding officer. That he is regarded as good authority on the rules of the House and knows how to apply them is proved by the fact that he was placed in the chair by the speaker during the long debate on the tariff bill, the most important measure enacted into the law by this congress.

Representative Olmstead comes from a district solidly Republican. He has been returned by his constituents every election without opposition in his own party. There is no doubt about his renomination and election and if the next House is Republican he will prove a formidable candidate for speaker.

The aye and nay vote printed in the Congressional Record has been more than once the undoing of a member. It is the record vote that gives the constituents some idea of the attendance at the sessions of the House of his Congressman. There would not be near so many absentees if the members could tell in advance when a vote was to be called. In the last Congress the third district of Maryland was represented by Congressman H. B. Wolf, a Democrat from Baltimore. Personally, he was clever and obliging to his constituents, but he suffered from the "absentee" fever. When the campaign rolled around Wolf was renominated. His opponent was John Kronmiller, Republican, a manufacturer, who now

Feet so Sore Couldn't Walk Down Stairs--

TIZ CURED HER QUICK.

If you have sore feet, tired feet, sweaty feet, lame feet, tender feet, smelly feet, corns, callouses or bunions, read what happened to Mrs. Crockett, of Jeffersonville. TIZ DID IT. Mr. Crockett says: "After the second treatment she walked downstairs one foot at a time. She has not been able to walk downstairs before in past five years, except by stepping down on each step with one foot at a time. This is remarkable. Send five more boxes."

No matter what ails your feet or what under heaven you have used without getting relief, just use TIZ. It's different. It acts right off. It cures sore feet to stay cured. It's the only foot remedy ever made which acts on the principle of drawing out all the poisonous exudations which cause sore feet. Powders and other remedies merely clog up the pores. TIZ cleans them out and keeps them clean. You will feel better the first time it's used. Use it a week and you
